

Stewart Arrives for Talks With Russians Nuclear Arms

Reports Hope Visit
Lead to 'Normalization'

— British observers said Stewart would try to get a clearer idea of the Soviet price for a treaty to stop the spread of nuclear arms. The Soviets have said no agreement is possible unless the United States abandons its proposal for a multilateral nuclear force for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The Soviet Union maintains this would give West Germany access to nuclear arms.

There have been signs of American and British flexibility on the tough question. Britain has indicated it considers a nonproliferation agreement more important than a NATO nuclear force.

Provide Compromise
The United States has proposed a consultation committee that would give other Atlantic alliance nations some participation in nuclear policy. Some observers say the committee proposal could provide a compromise between the West German desire for a greater voice in nuclear policy and the Soviet demand that no German finger touch the nuclear trigger.

The atmosphere for Stewart's mission was improved somewhat by a front-page article today in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party paper, welcoming him with a friendly comment.

"The Soviet people express the hope," Pravda said, "that the talks will be a further step toward the strengthening of friendly relations between the peoples of the Soviet Union and Great Britain."

Viet Nam Question
On the Viet Nam question, observers said Stewart might propose that Britain and the Soviet Union reconvene the Geneva conference which met in 1954 to end the French-Indochina war. Britain and the Soviet Union are cochairmen of the conference.

Police Follow Slim Trail of State Convict

Spotted Sleeping
In Car in Summit,
But He Slips Away

DELAFIELD (AP) — The search for Ralph Gruender, the first man to flee over the State Prison walls in 18 years, returned to Waukesha County early today after a town of Summit policeman said he had seen the fugitive sleeping in a car which had been stolen last week in Brookfield.

The sheriff's department said the policeman related the spotted the car on the side of the road around 3:15 and saw Gruender sleeping inside. The policeman asked him for his driver's license. Gruender reached for his pocket as if to produce the license but put the car in gear and took off at high speed without lights, the sheriff's office said.

Several squads of deputies searched the area without success.

Personal Appeal
Meanwhile Gruender's mother issued a personal appeal for him to surrender.

"I wish my son would give himself up," said Mrs. Calph Gruender of Delafield, his mother. "All he can do is run, and where is he going to run to?"

The answer puzzled authorities, who followed a trail of stolen cars from near the State Prison at Waupun to the Delafield area to Milwaukee suburbs without catching up with the fugitive.

The last reports that Gruender had been sighted came Friday night from a service station owner in Glendale and Saturday from a tavern operator in Saukville, west of Port Washington. Both reports triggered Ozaukee County searches that netted nothing.

McNamara Reports U.S. Not Losing War

Defense Secretary Says
Force Will be Built Up
To Meet Red Challenge

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara ended his visit to Viet Nam today by declaring that the United States would throw in as many fighting men as needed to wage the war against the Communists.

McNamara told newsmen at the airport after his fact-finding tour that his most dramatic impression is that "We have stopped losing the war."

He added, however, that the increased ferocity of Viet Cong

and North Vietnamese attacks in recent weeks indicated "a clear decision by Hanoi to escalate infiltration and raise the level of the conflict."

He said these acts must be countered, adding: "The South Vietnamese government will further increase its military strength."

Four Battalions
On the eve of McNamara's arrival, four Viet Cong battalions with North Vietnamese support troops handed the South Vietnamese one of their worst setbacks of the war. In an attack on troops holding an abandoned rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon, the Communists knocked out an entire government regiment as an effective fighting force. American advisers also perished.

It was feared the casualties, when finally totaled, might be the highest of the war to date.

McNamara declined to speculate on the total U.S. forces that will be required but his comments heightened speculation that he will advise President Johnson to increase American ground forces in Viet Nam from 165,000 to 300,000 men and step up air attacks on the North Vietnamese jungle supply routes.

Minimum Requests
These were believed to be the minimum requests of U.S. military commanders during their talks with McNamara during his whirlwind tour.

Before heading back to Washington, McNamara made a quick trip to U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division headquarters, in the central highlands 260 miles north of Saigon. He met some of the men who fought the Communists in the bitter Ia Drang Valley battle two weeks ago and flew over the battle scene.

Thanksgiving Road Death Toll Exceeds 600

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's Thanksgiving weekend traffic toll reached 602 today, the highest death tally for the period in eight years of record-keeping.

Until this year, the highest count was 554 in 1964. With some states still to verify final figures, it appeared this year's record for the 102-hour period which ended at midnight, local time, might go higher.

Forty traffic deaths were reported in New York State, 39 in California and 36 in Texas. Ohio counted 33 deaths.

Traffic death tolls have been recorded for the four-day Thanksgiving weekend period since 1958.

AP Tally
The Associated Press tally started at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Although most of the traffic deaths were single fatalities, scattered multiple-death accidents helped boost the final count.

A collision Sunday resulted in the death of three members of a Norman, Okla., family and a teen-age girl riding in their auto as they drove to church. Three persons were seriously injured in the mishap.

A collision Saturday near Radeliff, Ky., killed two brothers and their sister on their way to the funeral of a relative.

Three persons lost their lives Thanksgiving night near Punta Gorda, Fla., in a head-on collision. The same day near Dayton, Tex., five persons were killed in a crash.

Snow made driving conditions hazardous in some parts of the nation over the weekend.

Traffic fatalities over a four-day Thanksgiving weekend have

Klansmen On Trial in Rights Death

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Federal prosecutors put three Ku Klux Klansmen on trial today on charges resulting from the killing of a white civil rights worker, Viola Gregg Liuzzo.

Each of the Klan members — one of them already acquitted in state court, the others still awaiting trial — could be sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $5,000 under the indictment based on an old law used mostly in the past to safeguard voting and property rights.

Nowhere in the indictment is there any mention of the slaying of Mrs. Liuzzo, a Detroit housewife, which touched off the prosecutions.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, left, is greeted at Saigon airport Sunday, by U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. McNamara flew from Paris for two days of conferences with American and Vietnamese officials. Johnson Trying to Press Rates Of Money Lenders' Interest

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — His first move in the direction of easier money could come in bringing pressure to bear against the naming of a new member to replace C. Canby Balderston, expected to retire about Jan. 1. In that year the Treasury was to make the chairman's term coincide with a presidential term went nowhere in Congress, and the Johnson administration has no plans to revive it.

The board is maintaining a 4 per cent rediscount rate at this point which tends to boost interest charged by banks and other lending institutions.

The White House has figured out that the cost of short-term borrowing by the Treasury has gone up 72 per cent since 1961. In that year the Treasury was renting money for an average of 2.378 per cent interest; this month, the rate has been 4.097 per cent.

Long Term Rates
Long-term Treasury bonds cost the government about 12 per cent more than in 1961 because of an increase in the average interest rate from 3.90 per cent to 4.35 per cent.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler, in a speech at New Orleans Sunday night, said any further increase in interest rates as a brake against possible inflation growing out of the long economic boom would be "premature and unwise."

As he did in the controversy over aluminum and copper prices, Johnson is staying in the background of the campaign to ease the increased borrowing costs which Budget Bureau experts say will add about $400 million this year to the January estimate of $11.6 billion interest charges on the national debt.

This is one of several reasons given by White House officials to explain why the new budget Johnson will send to Congress Jan. 17 will go over the $100-billion mark.

Human Activity Code For Moon Is Advised

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was advised today to seek international agreement on "a code for human activity on the moon" to prevent the earth satellite from becoming a military base for any nation.

The proposal for a moon code, made by a citizens committee of scientists, space experts and educators, was one of several put before a White House Conference on International Cooperation opening here today.

Another panel proposed that the United States undertake a three-year program costing up to $100 million a year to help other nations develop and carry out birth control programs to check population expansion.

Food Production
In a related proposal, another group said world food production must be tripled by the year 2000 to feed an expected seven billion people on earth. It urged the United States to assist other countries in increasing food production as rapidly as possible.

In proposing a moon pact, the committee took note of the space race between the United States and the Soviet Union and said that "with multiple manned landings on the moon in prospect within the next several years," rules for its use could be negotiated through the United Nations Committee for Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

Essential provisions of such a treaty, the committee said, would be "suspension of sovereignty claims, free access by all for scientific purposes, exclusion of military maneuvers and weaponry and a verification procedure."

In a speech prepared for the opening session, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the conference, composed of some 5,000 distinguished Americans, that in the search for world peace and international cooperation "we need big blueprints and ideas."

Negroes, Whites To Try Harder After Bombings
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — About 2,600 Negroes and whites, taking every seat in the City Auditorium, have pledged themselves to strive harder for racial harmony in the wake of four bombings that damaged Negro homes in Charlotte.

"Charlotte should be commended for her reaction thus far -- the instantaneous demonstration of outrage," said Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Sunday night's mass meeting.

Mayor Tom Brookshire, another speaker, vowed that Charlotte would recommit itself to making racial progress and would give its Negro citizens "the opportunities, rights and encouragement" they deserve.

Knowles Sees High Cost of Medicare

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — To make all of Wisconsin residents eligible for medical care under the Social Security program recently authorized by Congress may cost the state and localities multi-million dollar sums, Gov. Warren Knowles said today.

The governor said a special commission of state and local government leaders and private citizens will meet here Dec. 6 to start a study of the problems involved in the implementation of the program with respect to thousands of persons who will not automatically be covered because of their ordinary Social Security eligibility.

They would include the unemployed and others now outside the Social Security program, and thousands of persons now receiving various forms of public assistance, including aid to dependent children, state and other public hospital patients, and others.

Full Implementation
If full Wisconsin legislative implementation of the national program is desired, additional benefit eligibility for Wisconsin persons would amount to more than $100 million, the governor said.

He said the Medicare Act becomes effective July 1, and the legislature will return to the capitol to work on unfinished business next May.

In the event of full implementation, some state and county costs for medical services now financed through relief programs would be reduced, he explained, but there could be a net additional cost to the state of about $29 million a

Slightly High Blood Pressure Is Common

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: The doctor told me my blood pressure was a little high. What can I do to lower it to normal? M.D.C.

I won't discuss high blood pressure in general, but limit today's remarks to the report that yours is "a little high."

Don't take this too soberly. If your blood pressure had been seriously elevated, your doctor would have instituted suitable treatment.

But all he said was "a little high," and that is not at all uncommon. For one thing, nervous tension affects it. Patients are likely to be apprehensive for reading just because of nerves.

I recall one young man, obviously seriously healthy, who wanted to enlist in the Air Corps. He had several examinations and every blessed time his blood pressure went soaring. He wanted so much to be accepted that the doctor finally arranged to be on hand when the youngster first woke up in the morning. Result: Normal pressure, because he hadn't had time to get his nerves in an uproar.

Consequently when a doctor finds blood pressure "a little high" on an initial visit, he isn't alarmed. Subsequent examinations, as the patient becomes more at ease, often show a truer reading. (Abnormally high pressure, of course, is another matter.)

Dr. Molner

For the patient who still wants to do something for pressure that is "a little high," the most useful suggestions are these:

- 1 If you are a tense, high strung individual, ease up.
- 2 If you are overweight, reduce.
- 3 If you are worried about something, either resolve the problem or make up your mind that it isn't worth all that worry. One way or the other,

get rid of it.

Worrying about your blood connected with the disease? pressure is a fruitless pastime Mrs. H. M. that just makes it worse.

Dear Dr. Molner: The doctor's estimation of a layer of fat below one of my legs as Weber disease process, subsides, there haven't had any experience with may be hollows, where the treatment or cure.

I have constant pain in the leg when I am standing, but when I am seated it doesn't hurt. Do you think this could be Weber-Christian disease is a form of panniculitis, or inflammation of the fat below the skin. Fever and painful nodules are usual, and after the disease process, subsides, there are hollows, where the nodules were. Yes, it is quite the underlying cause, we also possible that the pain stems from the disease.

There is no single cause of the disease, but usually it is a result of (a) some focal infection or (b) an allergy to certain drugs, chiefly iodides or bromides.

Treatment therefore depends on searching for either of these, and treating it. That's true of so many ailments, if we correct the underlying cause, we also correct its consequences.

Steroids (cortisone and dexamethasone) often help. The process usually clears up successfully.

Young Men, Women, Around World Faced With Draft Problem

LONDON (AP) — From Moscow to Jerusalem to Saigon, young men face the same problem that provokes discussion in the United States — the military draft.

Conscription is more the rule than the exception in a deeply divided world, a survey shows.

Britain, Canada, India and Pakistan are among the few big countries that rely solely on voluntary enlistments. Quarrelling India and Pakistan lack officers or equipment to handle the hundreds of thousands who would enlist if they could.

Israel, surrounded by hostile Arab countries, drafts both men and women. In Mexico, training is on a Sunday-only basis.

The United States draws from men in the 18-26 age group, with Selective Service to furnish 35,450 men this month. That's the highest call since the end of the Korean War and some states expect to start inducting childless married men to fill their December quotas. Washington plans to strengthen the military forces by 340,000 men for a total of about three million.

Other countries

How does the U.S. conscription policy compare with those of other countries? Tougher than some, more lenient than others, the following survey of representative countries indicates:

SOVIET UNION — Strict universal military training calls for induction of all youths 17 and 18 who have completed secondary school. When they reach 19, they're drafted even if they have not finished secondary school, but college students are exempt. Draftees must serve two to five years, depending on the branch to which they are assigned.

Draftees' pay is $3.30 per month. Leaves are granted only for emergencies or outstanding service.

Become Officers

College students receive military training while in school and are enrolled in the officers' reserves when they graduate. Some college students, such as engineers, are called into the service as officers upon graduation.

BRITAIN — With neither universal military training nor a conscription system, Britain took its last draftees in 1960. Since then the regular army has been below strength. It is now 15,000 under the goal of 181,000 men Britain's Territorial Army is the reserve force, composed entirely of volunteers, mostly former servicemen.

FAR EAST — South Vietnamese youths face three years of military service under a draft law that covers all men 18-35. The women's army corps is voluntary.

In India and Pakistan, food, uniforms and housing made military service such a privilege there is no need for conscription. India could raise an army of millions if it had the equipment and training cadre. Pakistan's applicants for service exceed the number that can be accepted.

Induct Physicians

India, however, has provisions to induct physicians and engineers for two years. Some students, particularly in technical fields, are required to join the National Cadet Corps.

Pakistan maintains irregular military groups such as the Mujahids, units of farm and village warriors.

Nepal has such a surplus of professional warriors it provides both British and Indian armies with thousands of Gurkhas.

Japan's Self-Defense Force of 245,000 men is voluntary and conscription is virtually outlawed since the national constitution bars war as an instrument of national policy.

Red China Force

Red China has a bottomless pool of manpower to draw upon. Its selected standing military force is estimated at 3.5 million men and available standby militia is estimated at 20 to 30 million men and women. The militia usually is poorly armed and sometimes not given arms at all except for training purposes. Under Mao Tse-tung's military theories "all the people are soldiers."

Nationalist China on Formosa has much the same draft system as the United States. Everyone is subject to call-up at 18 but college students get deferments and can take reserve officer training. Compulsory service in the army is for two years, and the navy and air force require three years because of technical training.

Down Under Programs

DOWN UNDER — Australia and New Zealand are gradually boosting their military training programs. Australia, with troops fighting guerrillas in Southeast Asia, will draft 4,200 men for two years of military service this year. The 1966 target is double that figure.

Draftees are selected by lot on their 20th birthday, and those conscripted represent about 10 per cent of that age group. The vides military training to civil citizens' Military Forces of volunteers. Thousands of high school youths receive drill and rifle training in cadet corps. New Zealand has a national military training program, but only about a fifth of the eligible youths are summoned into the Territorial Force. This is not normally employed in military operations but would be integrated with regular troops in an emergency. Youths register when they reach 20 and selection is by lot.

3,000 Per Year

Some 3,000 New Zealanders are inducted per year, out of an estimated 15,000 who are eligible, to maintain the force at 10,000 men.

MIDEAST — Tiny Israel has possibly the most sweeping military training programs. It requires military training for men and unmarried women 18-26. Men serve 26 months, women 20. Men 27-29 must serve 24 months.

After completing their terms, the men remain in the reserves until they are 49, childless women to the age of 34. As reservists, the men report for 31 days of training a year until they are 40 and then 14 days annually until they reach 49.

Israel's youth corps, Gadna, for boys and girls 14-18, is the joint responsibility of the army and Education Ministry. Nahal, another youth group, combines army duty with agricultural work in new settlements.

All Egyptian youths are subject to conscription when they reach 18, and youth groups provide military drill for girls who volunteer. Youths who do not intend to go beyond high school must serve three years in the army, navy or air force, while those who have begun college or have been accepted serve 18 months.

Military Training

WESTERN EUROPE — France, Germany and Italy all use military training to augment their regular forces. The West German youth is liable for 18 months of duty when he reaches 18, and nearly all of those eligible are being taken now since the birth rate was down after World War II. Because of health requirements, deferments for university students and other exemptions, only 55-60 per cent of those eligible would be taken normally.

In addition to West Germany's regular force of 450,000, 1 conscripts can serve in the 19,000-man federal border guard.

T. France has universal military training with youths at 19 subject to 18 months' active duty, plus 3½ years of availability plus 12 years in the active reserves. In 1965, the pool of men reaching draft age was 400,000; about half were conscripted.

During the Algerian war, France's draft touched a high of 280,000 and service ranged up to 28 months.

Started in 1870

Italy has had the draft since 1870 and the present law makes males eligible for induction at 20 and subject to recall until they are 45. Men taken in the army or air force serve 15 months; the navy term is 24. There are numerous provisions for exemption or postponements, and about 500,000 men — 1 per cent of the population — are involved in the draft each year.

LATIN AMERICA — Mexico's Sunday-only training program for youths may be expanded, but not because anyone's worried about war. Those favoring a plan that would draft some youths into the army for one year argue that it would curb juvenile delinquency, teach patriotism and literacy, and relieve unemployment. Mexico's World War II draft was dropped because of the cost.

Argentine Lottery

A lottery system draws 60,000 Argentine youths into uniform each year, with army and air force draftees serving a year and navy conscripts two years. The Argentine Congress recently lowered the conscription age to 18. Students who qualify in marksmanship are given three months of summer training in place of full-time service.

Brazilian males register at 16 and are subject to call two years later. Under a category system, conscripts in the first class serve in the army from delay feature does not change eight months to a year, second-class many existing options available to qualified applicants, according to Sgt. Grissman, who is in charge of the recruiting station at 117 S. Superior St., Appleton.

Enlist Now, Go Later; U.S. Army Offers Delay

Qualified applicants can now enlist in the U.S. Army with a 120 day delay in call to active duty, Sgt. Charles Grissman announced today.

This "enlist now and go later" program has been tried for more than a month. Past acceptance has warranted expansion of the program, Sgt. Grissman said.

The addition of the 120 day delay feature does not change many existing options available to qualified applicants, according to Sgt. Grissman, who is in charge of the recruiting station at 117 S. Superior St., Appleton.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Yule Season Swings to Music of Teen Parties

When the swinging teen-age holidays roll around, there's no getting away from the sound of music. Who wants to?

Making the scene this year means parties, lots of them, so by all means say yes to your teen-agers when they ask to give a party. Set up a buffet table with mugs of steaming hot oyster stew or turkey corn chowder. Have long French bread sandwiches with a filling of tomato, cheese and salami, split lengthwise. Serve dill pickles, tossed green salad, fruit cake, punch and coffee.

As a centerpiece for this teen buffet table, have a simple and pretty arrangement. Use silver tipped pine branches in a large silver or crystal vase at one end of the table; trim them with

Here is a recipe for cranberry punch:

1-46 ounce can grapefruit juice, chilled
1-46 ounce can pineapple juice, chilled
6-18 ounce bottles cranberry juice, chilled
2-28 ounce bottles ginger ale

Method: Combine juices with ginger ale; pour over ice in punch bowl. Makes approximately 40 punch cup servings.

Have a crunchy holiday mix on the buffet table. Here's one that's easy to do and that teenagers love:

Start your oven at 300. Melt 1/2 cup butter with 1/2 cup salad oil. Place 1/2 cup Spanish peanuts, one cup bite-size shredded wheat, one cup bite-size shredded rice, one cup doughnut-shaped oat cereal and one cup thin pretzel sticks in shallow pan; pour butter mixture over all; then sprinkle with one teaspoon seasoned salt.

Bake thirty minutes, stirring carefully every ten minutes. Cool and store in covered container until serving time.

With plenty of food on hand, move your stereo set from room to room as needed and know that you're giving a really cool Christmas party!

Husband, Wife Disagree Over Problems of Raising Child

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: My husband and I can't seem to stop having many different points of view about our child, and I'm positive the constant differences are hurting our marriage, even if they may not be hurting our child. We know most books on raising children say it's bad for parents to disagree. But the books don't tell how to settle arguments. And they also don't mention the kids of disagreements we have, so we don't even know if what we argue about is important for our child. Mainly, we bicker about how to accomplish something we both want for our child. Short of developing identical points of view, we don't know how to resolve our differences. We think it would be bad if one of us just give in to the other all the time in order to make peace — my husband is too strong-minded to give in to me, anyhow, and I don't think he's right all the time just because he's a man. What can you suggest to help us? MRS. T.T.A. The first thing is to recognize that you and your husband don't need to see eye-to-eye on everything concerning your child to provide a healthy home atmosphere to him. Many differences are good for your youngsters to know about.

As you become better able to recognize which differences are helpful and which aren't, you can stop feeling tense about many and you can begin to take some relatively simple steps to dissolve others.

You and your husband probably argue over only three different kinds of decisions affecting your child:

(1) Ones about unimportant matters that don't come up every day, like letting your child have a second box of popcorn at the movies or letting him stay up an extra half-hour to watch a special TV show;

(2) Ones about vital and crucial elements of child care that are part of everybody's daily life, like eating, sleeping, playing, working, studying, keeping clean, and following rules and regulations;

(3) Ones connected with the long-range goals you and your husband have about how you want your child to grow up and how you want him to behave at home and school and in his social life and later career — such decisions as whether the best way to teach your child about money is to give him an allowance and let him learn to spend and save it or to make him work for every cent he uses and insist he use it in certain ways.

Each of these kinds of differences is best handled in certain ways. In tomorrow's column, some of the ways you and your husband can use to settle the first kind of dispute are discussed.

If you have some questions about your child you would like Dr. Eve Jones to try to answer, write to her, care of The Post-Crescent, Appleton, Wis., 54912, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope so she may reply to you personally.

Former Wife of European Says American Mates Best

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: I saw red when my eyes fell on the words, "The American husband is the most spoiled, pleasure-seeking parasite in the world."

I was married to a European for 10 years so I speak as an authority. The European husband would sooner be caught dead than with a dish towel in his hand. He feels it is beneath his dignity to carry out the garbage or empty an ash tray. It does not offend him, however, to sit in an easy chair with his shoes off and watch his wife haul large baskets of laundry up from the basement. The European husband leaves his wife home a lot. I was never invited on a business trip although my husband's colleagues often took their wives. I was not permitted to join a bridge club because my husband said respectable women don't leave the house alone at night.

Ten years with that dingbat was like a life sentence. Now I am happily married to an American who treats me like a human being—Thumbs Down On European Men.

Dear Thumbs: I'm not disputing your word but I know of some American husbands who have the traits which you describe as "European." I'd like to hear from other women who have (or have had) European husbands. What goes (or went) on at your house, girls?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Recently there was a letter in your column about wives who undress in the closet. The letter attracted my attention because I am a 15-year-old girl who has a similar problem, only I hate to undress in front of my female classmates.

I just die when I have to shower after physical education. The dressing rooms don't have doors or curtains. It's not that I am overly modest, Ann, it's just that I wear a size 32 A cup brassiere and I am ashamed of having so little to put in it.

A flat-chested girl is like a peacock with no feathers. I feel inferior and self-conscious. Is there anything you can say to make me feel better?—Little Eva

Dear Eva: If you are only 15 don't buy a lifetime supply of 32-A cups. You are sure to outgrow them.

Our society has become dimension wacky in the last 25 years and it's nonsense. Some of these top-heavy movie stars look like pasture animals. The girl who is slightly undersized can always add a little, but the over-endowed ones are stuck. And I don't want any of you smart aleck college boys to write and tell me not to waste my sympathy on girls who are "stuck" with 38's. They might be doing all right—but for the wrong reasons.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Why do some members of the clergy feel free to call on members of their parish any old time and expect to be welcome as the flowers in Spring?

Isn't it common courtesy to telephone and ask if a visit is convenient? Does a clergyman have a special license to drive over whenever he feels like it and ring the doorbell?

I've discussed this with three other women in our parish and they, too, resent these unannounced visits. If we are wrong, please tell us. Thank you.—Just Us

Dear Just: No one has a

The couple was married Dec. 8, 1915. Their attendants, Mrs. August Speigelberg and Edward Schroeder, will attend the anniversary celebration.

The Ailing House Wax Paper For Molds Of Concrete

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: To keep my husband and children from tracking mud into the house, I thought I would make concrete stepping stones from the garage to the back door. I made square forms from wooden boxes, but the concrete stuck to the wood. Do you think if I lined the forms with waxed paper this would prevent the concrete sticking? Or what do you recommend?

A: Come to think of it, ma'am, waxed paper is a good idea. Foil would work, too. But we males usually solve the problem by coating the inside of the form with old motor oil or grease. Don't claim it's any better than your idea, however!

Q: I have noticed that the gravelly surface of the asphalt shingles on my roof is beginning to crumble off. Do you think painting would help preserve them?

A: An excellent idea. A paint of the vinyl plastic latex type will not only anchor the granules to this shingle, but add a film of protection. The shingles will last longer.

Q: Our sidewalk is apparently the most popular place for the neighboring children. Nice for our kids, but how do I remove all the stepped-on bubble gum?

A: Soften it with carbon "tet," then pry it up with the corner of a putty knife. Perhaps if you could supervise one of the young gum fanciers in this removal job, the word might get around that you mean business. Who knows? You might find less on the sidewalk.

Q: While I was examining my roof (while the TV man was fastening a new antenna to the chimney) I noticed that the metal flashing which lines the valleys between the two gables was rusted through in several places. I'm afraid this might develop into a bad leak, unless I can fix it. Is this a repair I can make myself?

A: Perfectly possible repair, although I'm not enthusiastic about nonprofessional prowling on roofs. Simply cover the holes generously with asphalt roofing cement. If any seams or joints look questionable, treat them, too.

stories of this kind can top that of Andrzej Wilkosz of the Polish national bridge team during the 1963 European Championships.

South's jump to six spades was aggressive, but North was really responsible for the silly slam contract. North should have jumped to four spades at his second turn without first bidding diamonds as well as clubs. North's bidding would have been proper if the queen of clubs were changed to the ace; and in that case a normal trump break would permit South to make the slam.

With the actual layout, South should have lost two club tricks and two trumps. If West had led a club, South would have gone down three. Even if West had led a trump, South would have gone down. West actually led the jack of hearts, and then the Polish master took over.

Discards Clubs
Wilkosz took the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy and cashed the high diamonds to get rid of his two clubs. Then he ruffed a club, while East moaned pitifully at the disappearance of the two club tricks.

South ruffed another heart in dummy and ruffed a second club in his hand. Then he ruffed his last heart in dummy and returned a diamond, ruffing with the eight of spades.

By this time South had taken the first nine tricks, and West was reduced to his four trumps. He had to over-ruff with the nine of spades and then had to return a trump up to South's A-K-J. Six spades bid and made.

"There was no way to make seven," Wilkosz said apologetically to his partner.

Daily Question
Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes. You hold: S Q 10 9 5 H J 10 9 3 D J 9 5 C K 7. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two spades. This shows trump support with about 6 to 9 points including distribution as well as high cards.

Influence Family Purchases

Valley Teen-Agers Spending Money Parents Never Had

Teen-agers in Outagamie, Calumet, Waupaca and Winnebago counties have come into their own. They have wealth such as their parents never dreamed of at their age.

They have plans, ideas and an influence over the family pocketbook that was unheard of in former years.

Mother has virtually abdicated in their favor. Time was when she was the family purchasing agent. She still does most of the buying, but only after lending an attentive ear to what junior has to say.

On the other hand, junior does his own purchasing without consultation, except among his own contemporaries.

Spend Over $4 Million
And he does plenty. On the basis of recent surveys, Outagamie County's teen-agers are spending in the neighborhood of $4,957,000 of their own money per year.

The 3,403 teen-agers in Calumet County are spending $1,664,000 in Waupaca County, 4,806 youths are spending $2,350,000, and in Winnebago County 14,380 teen-agers are spending $7,032,000.

It goes for records, soft drinks, toiletries, cosmetics, entertainment, food, cameras, automobiles, sports equipment, fountain pens and many other products.

The spending total is arrived at from studies and surveys made by the National Education Association, the Small Business Administration and the American Marketing Association.

They find that the nation's teen-agers have an income of no less than $11 billion a year equivalent to $489 for every youngster between 13 and 19.

In Outagamie County, it amounts to a healthy $4,957,000 for the 10,138 who are now in the teen-age bracket.

Some of them earn part of this money by doing odd jobs after school and during summer vacations. The rest comes from their weekly allowances, which vary with their age and requirements.

Such money must be spent quickly before it burns holes in the pockets. Out to attract it are merchandisers of everything from skate boards to stuffed dogs.

Influence Family Purchases
Of even greater interest to merchants and manufacturers is other family purchasing, placed at $30 billion nationally, over which the teen-agers have a direct influence.

They have a strong voice in

Froehlich Will Not Seek Attorney Post

Field Wide Open for Full-Time Appleton Post; 3 in Mayor's Race

City Atty. Frederick E. Froehlich will not seek re-election in the spring, he announced today.

Froehlich, the city's part-time legal counsel since 1962, said he intends to devote full time to his private law practice.

Froehlich indicated that since the Appleton Council decided to make the city attorney position full time as of May 1, 1966, he couldn't afford to give up the practice he has built up.

Ample Opportunity
By announcing his intentions now, Froehlich said, it would give ample opportunity to others who may be interested in seeking the elective post.

The full-time city attorney's job will pay about $13,000 a year, with an office and secretary provided at city hall. Anyone interested in running for the position has from now until Jan. 25 to file nomination papers.

No Papers Out
Froehlich was elected to two terms as part-time city attorney, receiving $6,900 a year.

During the past year he has had an assistant, Dennis Herrling, appointed by the council, to the $3,600 part-time post.

To date, no one has started circulating papers for the positions of city attorney or treasurer.

The city's first primary election in 30 years was all but assured last week when three residents started circulating papers for mayor. They include: Mayor Clarence Mitchell, 312 W. Lindbergh St.; Albert G. Gerhardt, 1221 E. Fremont St., and George F. Hennessey, 1534 E. Wisconsin Ave.

In the 18th Ward where Ald. Gerald Wagner said he would not run for another term, two persons are circulating papers. They are: Mayford R. Geske, 35, 1926 N. Erb St., an agent for Investors Diversified Services, Inc., and John M. Steidl, 35, 1521 N. Clark St., a supervisor in the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co.

One of three school commissioners whose term expires in the spring of 1966 is circulating papers.

No one has taken out papers for alderman in the Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth, 10th and 14th Wards.

Seven Banks Hike Interest Rate on Savings Accounts

Appleton, Kimberly, Kaukauna Join Twin Cities in Change

Seven banks in Appleton, Kimberly and Kaukauna announced today that interest rates paid on passbook savings accounts will be raised from 3 to 4 per cent in December.

One remaining bank, the Bank of Little Chute, is holding a meeting tonight and will discuss the subject. A spokesman for the bank said an announcement on higher savings interest rates probably will be made Tuesday.

The first bank to make the decision, apparently, was the First National Bank of Appleton. Harold Adams, president, said the decision was made this morning by the bank's executive committee.

Passbook Savings Only
The new rate, which applies to passbook savings only, will be effective Dec. 1 at the First National Bank of Appleton, Appleton State Bank, Northern Bank of Appleton, Outagamie County Bank of Appleton, Farmers and Merchants Bank of Kaukauna and the Bank of Kaukauna. The savings rate hike goes into effect Dec. 15 at the Kimberly State Bank.

The Twin City banks also made the 4 per cent rate applicable to Christmas Club savings accounts. Previously no interest had been paid on Christmas Club accounts.

In their announcements today, none of the Appleton, Kimberly, Kaukauna or Little Chute banks included Christmas Club accounts.

15 Persons Interested in Personnel Job
More Applicants Expected for New Appleton Post
The field of applicants for the newly-created position of Appleton personnel director is nearing 15, Mayor Clarence Mitchell said today.

Mitchell disclosed that persons interested in heading the city's new department have been answering newspaper advertisements and are from Wisconsin and other Midwest states.

"I expect we will be receiving quite a few inquiries before the deadline for taking the written and oral examinations," Mitchell advised.

The State Bureau of Personnel will conduct the written exams while also assisting local officials with the interviews.

The position will pay from $8,000 to $10,000 a year to start. It had been hoped to have the position filled by Dec. 1 but the city is behind schedule.

Originally when the position was advertised there were only three applicants for the job. They were rejected and the city readvertised for candidates.

Short in Electric Stove Causes Smoke in Home
KAUKAUNA—Firemen were called at 4:05 p.m. Sunday to the Frank Pratt residence, 204 Elm St., where a short was found in an electric stove causing some smoke in the house.

Firemen disconnected the stove and advised the owner to call a repairman.

Previously to Froehlich's opinion, City Clerk Elden Broehm received information from the city's bonding consultants that investment income on school bond issues would have to revert to a sinking fund and be applied to construction costs, or toward lowering the following year's school levy.

Plan Commission Suggests Addition to Linwood Park

OK Sought to Negotiate Purchase Of Knoke Property for Expansion

An addition to Linwood Park in a heavy industrial area. It was explained if the city plan commission, acquired the property, it could use most of the land for park purposes and then sell off small parcels to the industrial lots.

It asked the Appleton Council to authorize the board of public works to negotiate for the purchase of the Knoke family Linwood Park, located in the Fifth Ward, consists of 9.5 acres and was acquired by the city in 1945.

There was some discussion that Lindwood Street might be closed permanently if most of the property were used for park purposes. However, it was indicated the street closing was not a necessity.

In other action, the commission is selling through a local realtor. However, in a letter to city officials it was indicated the price would be subject to negotiation.

Planners Agree
The commission was unanimous in its recommendation, which was concurred in by city house and storage yard on the city's northwest side.

Blast at Paper Firm Damages Machine
No One Injured as Dryer Explodes Saturday at Combined Locks Mill
COMBINED LOCKS — Extensive damage was reported to No. 4 paper machine and lesser damage to No. 5 machine at the Combined Locks Paper Co. about 8 p.m. Saturday when a 4-foot diameter dryer roll on No. 4 machine exploded.

Force of the explosion in a steam drying unit blew out some glass block windows, but no one was injured. No one was present at the time.

Company officials indicated the machine had been running Saturday despite the strike at the plant, and had been shut down about 3 p.m.

Insurance investigators are at the plant attempting to learn the cause of the explosion and find the full extent of damage to both the machine and adjacent units.

Supervisory personnel have been operating the machine periodically since the walkout at the plant Nov. 1.

Company officials refused to estimate the amount of damage saying this would be up to the insurance investigators.

Neither fire nor police personnel were notified of the accident.

Rhemold Vogt, president of Combined Locks Paper Co., refused to give information as to the cause of the explosion or estimate the extent of damage. He also refused reporters entry to the building.

To Hover Over Lake
Authorities Trp Helicopter In Search for Kappell Clues

OSHKOSH — Winnebago County authorities today are bringing in a Coast Guard helicopter to search for clues in the death of Stephen Kappell, a Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh student from Kaukauna.

Dist. Atty. Gerald Engeldinger said the helicopter will be used to conduct a thorough search of the Lake Winnebago area where Kappell's bound and weighted body was found Oct. 16.

An inquest has been scheduled for Dec. 8 to determine the cause of death.

Sheriff Lt. Richard Guenther and Oshkosh Police Sgt. Earl Disch have been investigating the case in an attempt to determine how Kappell met his death and where he was prior to his being placed in the lake. Engeldinger explained that Percy Menning to rezone from single family to commercial the property on the north side of Northland Avenue across from Doctor's Park.

Denied a rezoning request from residential to commercial for property on the northwest corner of Newberry Street and White Oak Drive.

Concurred in the recommendation of the city planner that a moratorium be called on all rezoning requests involving the north side of Newberry Street until the city's comprehensive plan is completed.

Competition Beginning for Supervisors

The first suggestion of a county board contest in the April election came this morning when Supv. Edward Peotter of the Town of Osborn took out nomination papers for Supervisor Dist. 43.

Supv. Alvin M. Sasman of Black Creek took out his papers for nomination in the same district on Friday. Under the new county board reapportionment plan which goes into effect in April, district 43 will include both the towns of Black Creek and Osborn and the village of Black Creek.

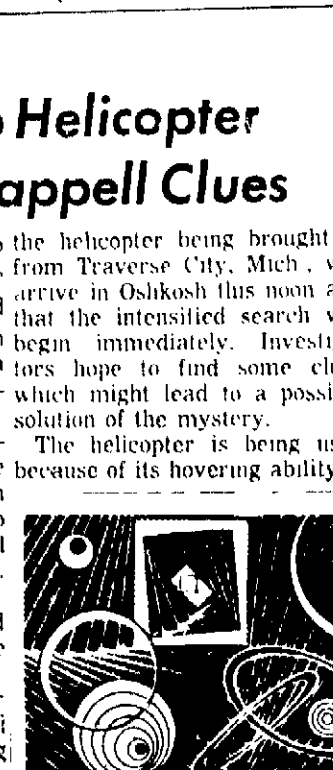

Three other persons, including two incumbent supervisors, also took out nomination papers today from the office of County Clerk Mollie E. Pfeffer.

Included were Henry A. Bartz, 550 N. Clark St., supervisor from Appleton's first ward, who will seek nomination for the third supervisory district; Supv. Clarence L. Miller, 1822 S. Oneida St., Appleton nine, for the eleventh district; and Arnold R. Welch, 415 E. Byrd St., a retired First National Bank of Appleton official, who will run for a county board post from the eighteenth district.

Reviewer, Audience in Accord; Barbershop Harmony Pleases All

BY ED VAN BERKEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KAUKAUNA — In writing a review, the reviewer should take into consideration audience acceptance of a program rather than merely his personal feelings on the endeavor. But no such problem existed at the 12th annual Kaukauna - Little Chute Album of Barbershop Harmony here Saturday night. The reviewer and audience seemed in complete accord.

Lovers of barbershop music filled the Civic Auditorium to overflowing and were treated to some professional quartet singing and moments of humor provided by light banter between numbers by individual quartets as well as a good share of fun provided by the Mad Hatters of Shelbygan.

Highlights of the program, the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers, provided again they have Eifler, offering the sentimental complete mastery over any number they attempt to bar-You" and "Strolling Home with monize, whether a traditional Jenny," followed by the crowd barbershop selection or a num-pleasing "Tiger Rag." Evidence ber more suitable for individual or chorus rendition.

Local Favorites
The Captivators, a local quartet from the Kaukauna - Little Chute Chapter, served notice they will be going far in this barbershop circles as they displayed poise and fine blending in a variety of songs. Persons who heard the group in last year's program expressed surprise at the growth of the quartet which even last year showed great promise. It was not hard to understand how they look fourth in Land O' Lakes district competition and one can see nothing but further improvement for the singers with higher rankings in future contests.

The Badg-Aires, Madison, last minute substitutes for the Fan-tastics and no strangers to the local audience, again proved their versatility and continued their practice of giving each individual in the group a chance to demonstrate his vocal talents.

The program opened with the Kaukauna-Little Chute Chorus, under the direction of Keith Eifler, offering the sentimental complete mastery over any number they attempt to bar-You" and "Strolling Home with monize, whether a traditional Jenny," followed by the crowd barbershop selection or a num-pleasing "Tiger Rag." High Cliff Visitors Exceed 500,000

Camper Use of Facilities Also Shows Increase Over '64 Season

More than half a million people visited High Cliff State Park for the second straight year during the 1965 season, according to John M. Franzen, park manager. The 1965 count was 566,000 persons compared with 532,000 for 1964.

Automatic traffic counters at the park entrances tallied 161,964 cars up to Oct. 31. The largest single day's attendance was July 11 when some 14,525 Fox River Valley residents packed picnic lunches, swimming suits and other gear and headed for the cooling lake breezes common at the park.

Camping also increased substantially over last year's figures. About 2,171 families camped a total of 9,586 camper days at the campgrounds overlooking Lake Winnebago, compared to 1,735 camping families during 1964. During June, July and August the campgrounds were filled about 95 per cent of the time.

New Developments New developments at High Cliff were highlighted this year with the beginning of the construction of a $140,000 shelter-concession building on top of the limestone escarpment. When completed in 1966, it will be one of the most modern and completely equipped facilities of its kind in the state park system.

The building will include an open shelter 30 feet wide and 90 feet long. The main shelter will be 60 feet wide and 120 feet long. It will include a glass and wood enclosed shelter with a central fireplace. The fireplace will be shrouded with copper sheeting from floor to ceiling. Other construction materials include native limestone stone-work and a cedar-shake roof for both buildings.

Concession Stand The other portion of the main building will contain modern rest room facilities together with a complete concession capable of serving customers from both inside and outside the building.

Other construction this year has included two new parking lots built by Calumet County highway crews. These lots will hold 60 and 34 cars respectively. They are located on top of the ridge adjacent to the present picnic grounds. Early next summer they will be completed with the addition of blacktop and concrete bumper blocks. Park crews were also busy this past summer on a new hiking trail in the park. Located south of the quarry, it takes the hiker and his family on a pleasant half mile circular walk through the park's grouping of Indian mounds. This trail is paved and cut wide. During the winter, more work will be

New Camp Areas

Planning is going ahead to start construction of a new campgrounds which will be located just south and east of the park drive where it leaves the old quarry site.

High Cliff State Park was enlarged again this year with the purchase of an additional 12 acres of land near the south boundary. The total area now in state ownership is 606 acres.

Even though the summer and fall seasons are past people may drive through the park at any time, Franzen said.

Kline Will Seek Fourth Mayor Term

MENASHA — Mayor John Klein took out nomination papers today and announced he will be a candidate for his fourth consecutive term in next April's city elections.

No other candidates have announced their intention to run since nomination papers became available in the city clerk's office Friday. Speculation has centered on several other possible candidates, but so far no candidates have come out for the mayor's position.

Klein said he will run on a platform of "continued progress for a new Menasha" and will stand on his record over the past five and a half years in office.

He was elected mayor midway in his third term as Third Ward alderman in 1960 by nearly a two to one margin over two-term incumbent Mayor R. G. DuCharme.

In the 1962 elections, Klein again faced DuCharme and trounced him by the same margin of nearly two to one. Klein polled 64 per cent of the mayoral balloting and DuCharme 36 per cent.

Running for his third two-year term in 1964, Klein defeated Earl Kohler, head mechanic at the city garage and then Second Ward county supervisor, by a margin of more than two to one. Klein polled 3,182 votes, winning every ward, to Kohler's 1,503.

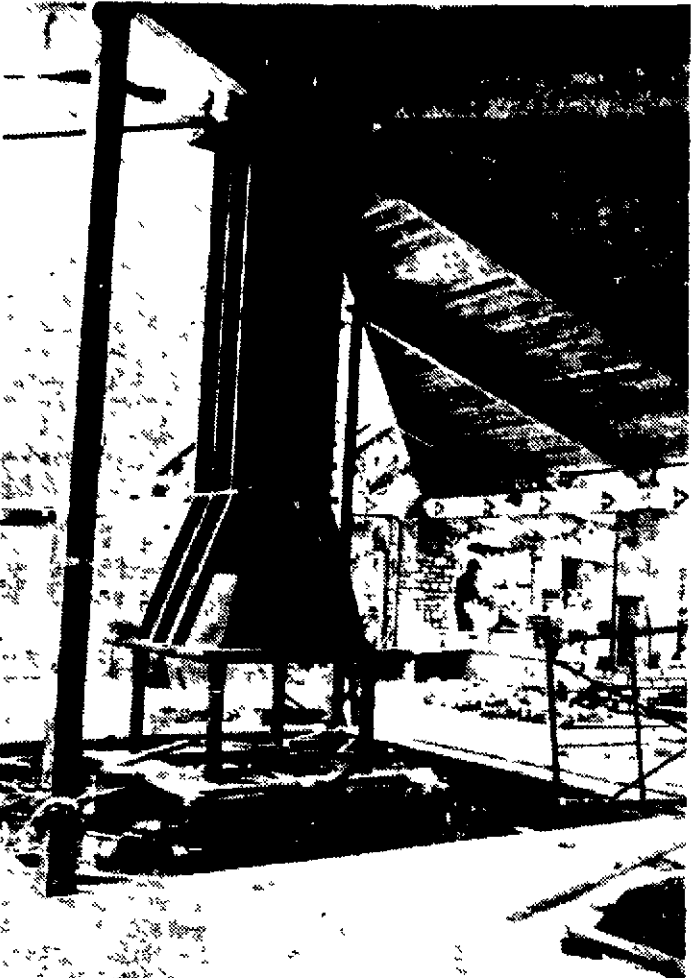

Lawrence Music Dean Re-elected to Position

Work on the New Shelter-Concession building at High Cliff State Park is progressing on schedule with the $144,000 structure expected to be completed in spring.

Heating Safety Precautions Given by Fire Inspectors

Appleton Fire Department inspectors today cautioned residents to take measures to help assure a fire safe home now that the peak heating season has arrived.

Their warning followed the deaths of four children in a furnace explosion Saturday at Layfayette, Ind.

One of the necessary precautions, they said, is to have a reputable serviceman conduct an annual check on the entire home heating system. With coal-burning furnaces, it is especially important to make sure the chimney is clean, the inspectors noted.

Residents also should take special steps to assure a clean and properly maintained space heater, they said.

"Make sure there is a clear area of at least 10 feet around a furnace," inspectors cautioned. They also warned against leaving combustible materials too close to incinerators.

Yet another safety step is to remove all flammable liquids that have accumulated in the basement. Some of these materials constitute a fire hazard, even if they are in cans, inspectors said.

Neenah Mat Team Whips Stockbridge

NEENAH — Coach Gil Sutherland's Neenah High School wrestlers auspiciously opened their season by routing Stockbridge, 51-3, in a non-conference match here Saturday night.

The Indians, shorthanded because of illness and a small squad to start with, forfeited in four divisions.

The Red and White added five pins and won two bouts via decision.

Stockbridge's lone victory came at 154 pounds where Jerry Bloodorn scored a 7-5 decision over all-Fox Cities grizzer Gary Multart.

Darwin Westphal scored a 7-0 decision over Gary Gebhart at 103 pounds and Don Schroeder pinned Bob Goerser in 1 25 at 112.

Bob Brockman posted a pin in 52 seconds over Chuck Propson at 120 pounds.

Defending Mid-Eastern Conference champion Mike LeGault stopped Bob Zitzelberger in 50 seconds at 138 pounds.

Mike Miliken scored an 8-4 decision over Ken Elmergreen at 165 pounds and his younger brother, Kevin, pinned Paul Schaefer in 1 40 at 180 pounds.

Heavyweight Rick Bondow took only 20 seconds to pin Vern Gebhart.

Winning by forfeit were John Popp, 95 pounds, Ted Hill, 127; Pat Schaller, 133, and Pat McCarthy, 145.

The Rockets made their second start at New Holstein against a Huskie team which bested Menasha, 27-16, last week. The teams will weigh in at 6 p.m. The Jayvee teams will wrestle first.

Kimberly Downs Macs 99-87 in BABA Play

MENASHA — Jerry's Lanes of Kimberly opened defense of its share of the Badger Amateur Basketball Association's Southern Division crown by besting the Menasha Macs, 99-87, at Kimberly Saturday night.

The Macs exploded for 35 points in the last period but were unable to make up the big deficit.

Kimberly took a 29-17 first period bulge and were in front, 51-39 at the close of three periods. The victors racked up a 28-13 advantage in the third period.

Approval Sought For $1,678,201 Winnebago Unit

OSHKOSH — Bids totaling $1,678,201 will be recommended for acceptance by the Winnebago County Board Tuesday for the new 240-bed Pleasant Acres home.

Special building committee members reviewed the bids this morning with Leonard Schober, architect with the firm of Berners, Schober and Kilp.

Schober estimated that the other projects at the county institutions, such as demolition of the present building, site development, equipment and the new boiler house, will bring the cost up to about $2,288,539, leaving a contingency balance of about $201,000. He estimated the equipment and furnishings could run higher than the estimated $145,000 since the kitchen equipment would run between $85,000 and $90,000 alone.

Schober also pointed out the boiler house may be put into operation about Dec. 17.

hats and offered such numbers as "When You're Smiling," which they never did, and "Minnie the Mermaid." Much of their harmonizing was lost as audience laughter at their antics overrode the singing.

All groups were called on to give encores in both portions of the program and many of the faithful followed the units to the Afterglow where more good harmony was rendered. Paul Schmitt led the audience in half-time community singing and it was difficult to tell who was enjoying the fun the most, the leader or the audience. The merry moods generated by the quartets made it simple for Schmitt to encourage the assembly to join in song.

Third Youth in Custody for Theft At Neillsville Firm

A third Appleton youth has been taken into juvenile custody in connection with the burglary and theft of a Neillsville garage.

The 17-year-old youth, and two others ages 16 and 17, are being held in Outagamie County jail.

It's utterly ridiculous and I don't know how such things get started," he said. "I had a reasonable offer from Green Bay last Saturday in New York. I would like to play wherever I go. Green Bay is close to home and it will be a championship contender for years to come.

"At Miami I would be starting with a new team and grow with it. I really don't have a league preference but I have a lot of things to weigh before making my decision."

The trio allegedly broke into Urban Sales Co., an automobile agency and stole checks totaling $3,481, $40 cash and a transistor radio.

They were apprehended late last week by Outagamie County sheriff's investigators.

Protests Don't Convince Anybody, Leader Admits

Saturday Demonstration Sponsor Plans More Viet Nam Marches

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
WASHINGTON (AP) — A leader of the weekend peace march on Washington, in which thousands protested American involvement in the Viet Nam war, said today that "a demonstration doesn't convince anybody."

Despite this Sanford Gottlieb said in a telephone interview, more demonstrations are being considered by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy — SANE.

Gottlieb is political action director of SANE, which sponsored Saturday's march and picketing of the White House in protest of U.S. policies in Viet Nam. March officials estimated the turnout at 40,000 to 50,000; police placed it at 25,000.

Pleased With Turnout

"We were definitely pleased with the turnout," Gottlieb said, "despite the bus drivers who wouldn't drive people from New York and also from Baltimore."

Future marches are being considered, he said, because "at a time when a dramatic event is needed to publicize your point of view, there's nothing like a large demonstration."

"But a demonstration doesn't convince anybody," Gottlieb said.

March leaders issued a leaflet during the protest titled "What to Do Next." SANE advised protesters to write letters to newspapers, support politicians who favor a peaceful solution to the war and urge clergymen to discuss the moral issues of the Viet Nam battle.

"None of us has any illusions about the effect of any single march or even about marches as a form of action," Gottlieb said. To get results, recommendations such as offered in the leaflet "must be carried out week by week."

The SANE marchers carried signs urging an end to bombing in Viet Nam and negotiated settlement of the war. They were joined by more dissident groups including one carrying the gold-starred flag of the Viet Cong Communist guerrillas.

March leaders had arranged for protesters carrying American flags to quickly surround the Viet Cong banners. Despite this, some of the 13 arrests during the march were prompted by the Communist flags.

At one point, two men were arrested by police after wrestling a Viet Cong flag to the ground. "There are people dying over there and you let them fly that thing," said one as police led him away.

The bulk of the protesters, however, were well-dressed, quiet and good-humored.

"This movement is not controlled by beatniks and extremists," Gottlieb said. "But a lot of young people of a more radical view than my own were not pleased."

Gottlieb appeared Sunday at the final session of the four-day convention of the National Coordinating Committee, a group consisting of college-age delegates from the Communist party, Students for Democratic Action, W. E. B. DuBois Club and the Young Socialist Alliance.

Coordinating committee members described the march as too timid and said that instead of asking for a negotiated settlement, the marchers should have demanded a pullout of American troops.

Investigation Underway 61 Killed in Utah Plane Crashes Within 16 Days

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Investigators raked through the wreckage of a DC3 that burst into flames at the airport, a search party was to recover bodies and search planes circled snow-capped mountains today in the wake of airplane disasters that have claimed 61 lives in Utah in 16 days.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators probed the wreckage of a twin-engine DC3 that crashed minutes after takeoff from Salt Lake Airport Saturday, killing all 13 persons aboard.

It was the second commercial airliner tragedy in the state this month. On Nov. 11, a United Air Lines 727 trijet crashedlanded and burst into flames at the airport, killing 43 of the 91 persons aboard.

In south-central Utah, a ground party was to bring down the bodies of four Minneapolis residents who perished when their light plane crashed near the peak of 11,139-foot Mt. Belnap.

The Minnesota plane disappeared in a snowstorm Nov. 14. The same night a private plane, piloted by a Phoenix, Ariz., minister disappeared. He was found dead in the wreckage the next day.

Civil Air Patrol planes were still searching the mountains of eastern Utah today for a small plane that vanished with an Air Force sergeant on a flight from Salt Lake City to Denver.

The plane which crashed Saturday was operated by Edde Airlines, a charter service. On board were nine passengers and four crew members. It took off at dawn. Two hours later the smoldering wreckage was found in the Traverse Mountains 20 miles south of the airport.

'Football Special'

Some 20 other passengers were waiting to board at Provo. It was a "football special" carrying members of a Brigham Young University Boosters' club to the Cougars football game with New Mexico at Albuquerque.

CAB investigators say the plane clipped the top of one hill and bounced over the peak, smashing against the next hillside.

"It's just coincidence," said Charles Sheets, a CAB official, when asked about the rash of accidents.

Glenn Adams, chairman of Utah State Aeronautics Commission, said "the three (small) aircraft crashes were directly attributable to adverse weather. People were attempting to fly who were not accustomed to flying in this area's weather."

Runaway Girl At Work in Thai Orphanage

16-Year-Old Found By Newsmen After Leaving California

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A news dispatch from the United States and a newsman's memory reunited a worried American mother and her runaway 16-year-old daughter in Bangkok today.

The girl, Mary Wilson, had slipped away from the Encino, Calif., home of her parents, Dr.

Mary Wilson and Mrs. George Wilson on Nov. 19. They believed she had gone to Bangkok to work for an orphanage.

Mrs. Wilson arrived in Bangkok early today to try to pick up her daughter's trail. Meanwhile, Nalan Darby, a newsman at the English-language Bangkok Post read an Associated Press dispatch about the girl's disappearance and recalled a recent article about the Peira Foundation, a Bangkok orphanage.

Found Mrs. Wilson

Darby called the orphanage and learned that Mary had been working there for a week. He called the U.S. Embassy, by chance found Mrs. Wilson there and told the embassy where Mary was.

"I'm so thankful that she's safe and sound," said Mrs. Wilson after the reunion with her daughter. "She's a do-gooder and rather religious girl."

Two friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Shope, whisked the pair off to their home and refused to allow newsmen to see them.

"They're both distraught and need some rest and quiet," said Mrs. Shope.

Mrs. Wilson and Mary are expected to remain in Bangkok several days before turning to California.

A spokesman at the Pierra Foundation said Mary came to the institute last Tuesday inquiring about adoption of a child.

She was asked to wait until an official of the foundation could be located but left before the official arrived.

She returned the next day with her luggage and after a conference with Dr. Pierra Vebjabuo, head of the orphanage, moved into the establishment.

Newsman could not contact Dr. Pierra immediately today.

"She was a very quiet girl and spent most of her time singing with the orphans," said a spokesman. "She obviously loves children very much."

The foundation cares for about 80 orphans.

Congress Needs Facts'

Laird Seeks Information to Decide Whether War Declaration Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Melvin R. Laird, R - Wis., suggested today that President Johnson give to Congress all the facts surrounding the Viet Nam situation and with it recommend whether a declaration of war is necessary.

"There seems to be some question about whether we are involved in a war situation in Viet Nam at the present time," Laird said. "If we are not fighting a war in Viet Nam today, I don't know what else to call that situation."

Laird, chairman of the House Republican Conference, said in an interview that Johnson has escalated the U.S. commitment in Viet Nam "to the point where we are drifting dangerously close to a major ground war."

250,000 Men

Noting there are more than 180,000 American servicemen in Viet Nam, Laird said plans are to increase this to 250,000 by next spring with prospects of at least 10,000 more during the following year if the war continues on its present course.

"It is time President Johnson gave Congress and the American people the facts of the war situation," he said. "To my way of thinking, we are in a war right now in Viet Nam. Constitutionally, Congress has the sole power to declare war."

Additional $5 Billion

The war in Viet Nam is being carried on at the present time, Laird said, without even being fully funded by Congress. He said the administration was so anxious to keep the expenditure budget below $100 billion that it neglected to include sufficient funds for the Viet Nam fighting.

Laird said the administration will ask for $5 billion in January in a supplementary appropriation.

A spokesman at the Pierra Foundation said Mary came to the institute last Tuesday inquiring about adoption of a child.

She was asked to wait until an official of the foundation could be located but left before the official arrived.

She returned the next day with her luggage and after a conference with Dr. Pierra Vebjabuo, head of the orphanage, moved into the establishment.

Newsman could not contact Dr. Pierra immediately today.

"She was a very quiet girl and spent most of her time singing with the orphans," said a spokesman. "She obviously loves children very much."

U.S. to Accept 800 Cubans Each Week

Exodus of 174,000 Persons May Take More Than Four Years

MIAMI (AP) — About 800 Cuban refugees will be added to the U.S. population every week starting Wednesday and possibly continuing for years. From Miami, they will scatter throughout the nation.

The Cuban Refugee Center, which will coordinate the vast distribution program, will steer refugees to relatives who preceded them.

Otherwise, the program shapes up largely as a speedup of resettlement that since 1961 has sent nearly 100,000 exiles to more than 2,000 cities in the 50 states, a center spokesman said.

"Under a change of procedure, resettlement now will be largely on a relative-to-relative basis," said Marshal Wise, director of the government-operated center. "Cubans will look for jobs in areas where they have relatives."

Add to Populace

That means populous areas such as New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, where refugees already are concentrated, will receive more, a center spokesman said. It does not mean, however, that points now with a Cuban population will be left out.

A community wishing to attract refugees, or employers with job openings for some, should contact a church in their hometown or the refugee center in Miami, or both, the spokesman said. Most churches are prepared to relay the requests to settlement agencies, he said.

"Many refugees may not be able to find jobs where their relatives are, and will be happy to go elsewhere," said Harry Lyford, public information officer at the center.

U. S. Pays Fare

Under the new phase of the migration movement, relatives of Cubans already in the United States will be flown from Varadero, Cuba, to Miami. There will be nine flights weekly, with Uncle Sam paying the fares.

From "Freedom House," temporary quarters near Miami International Airport, most of the arrivals are to be transported to points where relatives await them. Then they will be on their own.

"Should they be unable to find work, and be in need, they can go to a welfare office and present their case," Lyford said. "The federal government would reimburse state welfare offices."

Applications for evacuation of 174,000 persons from Cuba have been received by the refugee center from 85,190 relatives in this country. It would take more than four years to bring that number here at the rate of 800 weekly. The U.S. and Cuban governments must pass on the applications.

Job Offers

The refugee center already has received thousands of job offers from some 40 states. The Caribbean Freedom League in states, a center spokesman said. Franklin, La., forwarded requests for 69 Cubans for jobs ranging from domestic work to skilled manufacturing.

Requests for garment and textile industry workers, restaurateur employees, electricians, laborers, carpenters and factory workers were reported numerous for a bilingual stenographer.

In some cases, inability of refugees to speak English presents a problem to employers, a refugee center spokesman said. "It is being met by including an English-speaking Cuban when a group is employed," he said. "He can serve as interpreter."

About 30,000 Cuban exiles are employed in the Miami area, and 50,000 others live here. Community leaders, feeling the Miami economy would be strained by further heavy refugee concentration, have organized to help speed resettlement elsewhere.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, bucket lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending our use of rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/66

Try Corncob Handicraft For an Unusual Project

BY CAPPY DICK

Corncob handicraft is a lot of fun. The most important things you will need are dried cobs of field corn.

Many of the cobs are brick red in color. When you slice a cross-section you find a soft, white pith about half an inch in diameter at the center of the cob. The pith is surrounded by a hard, cream-colored ring. The three colors together form a nice combination. The pith can be colored with water color paints, if you wish.

By slicing a cob into thin disks you can make a variety of interesting and useful things. The hot plate pad in Figure 2 is an example; it's a nice gift for (Mother. In Figure 1 is a section of a bracelet or necklace. A bread knife with saw teeth is a good instrument for slicing the cob into disks. The slices should be about one fourth of an inch thick.

Cobs are wider at one end than at the other. This means some of the disks will be larger than others. If you make a hot plate pad you will probably want to use disks of one size. For a bracelet or necklace you should string the biggest disks at the middle.

To make the hot plate pad you will also need a disk of cardboard on which to glue the slices.

For the bracelet or necklace string the disks on a heavy cord of a color that harmonizes with the red of the cob. Run the cord through the soft pith of each slice.

Great Cantinflas Makes His American Debut

Mexico's Comic Likened to Chaplin;
Brings Bullfight Routine to New York

By DAVE SMITH
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The pint-sized comedian with the baggy pants, blackberry eyes and a mustache that looks like a shaving accident braced himself haughtily, sword poised, for the moment of truth as the bull thundered down on him.

Then his pants fell down. The bull confused ran the other way.

And so Cantinflas, Mexico's most famed comic, conquered F. Toro and 20,000 fans at Dodge Stadium recently.

A charity spectacular, Fiesta Mexicana, marked Cantinflas' U.S. debut as a comic bull-fighter.

'Greatest in World' He had the audience in the palm of his hand even before the show began.

As a comic, he is a latter-day Charlie Chaplin and Chaplin once called him the greatest comedian in the world. Cantinflas' appeal, like Chaplin's, is that of the perpetually good humored little man, always tilting at windmills never bearing them but never quite defeated, either.

Rita Maria Moreno, one of 15 children of a poor family, he began to work in show business while supposedly attending medical school. To keep his parents from knowing he had quit school, he chose a stage name—Cantinflas.

Cantinflas, at 48, is a millionaire many times over. His contributions to charity are reputed to be enormous. He has always refused to disclose amounts.

In the bullfight, Cantinflas performs the brilliant, bewildering nonsense that touches on the essence of humor.

The bull glares furiously. Cantinflas glares back. The bull paws the ground. So does Cantinflas. The bull runs. So does Cantinflas.

At the end of a frustrating battle of seemingly equal wits, both the bull and Cantinflas are lying in the dust, the comic fanning himself with the bull's tail.

The bull is undefeated. But so is little Cantinflas.

Rams Topple Packers, 21-10, to Halt Losing Streak at 8 Games

New York Giant Quarterback Earl Morrall (11) lets go with a pass good for a 5-yard gain in the first period of Sunday's game with the Chicago Bears in Yankee Stadium. Bear defensive end Doug Atkins (81) moves in a little too late to stop the play. The Bears won, 35-14. (AP Wirephoto)

Green Bay Title Hopes Dimmed In Upset Loss

Bays Gain 22 Yards On Ground; Gossett Kicks 4 Field Goals

BY ART DALEY Post-Crescent News Service LOS ANGELES — This one hurt. In more ways than one. First and worst, the Packers' 21-10 loss to the Rams in the Coliseum Sunday knocked them a game and a half behind the Western Division Colts.

With 8-3, the Packers now need outside help to overtake the Colts who are 9-1-1. The Colts next play host to the surging Bears while the Packers return to Lambeau field to meet the Vikings. The Packers must depend on a Bear victory, a win over the Vikings and then a triumph in Baltimore the next Sunday to take the lead.

Second and amazingly puzzling, the Packer offense again went on the fritz — just as it did over a 4-game spell before the Bays broke out with a 38-13 win over the Vikings a week ago Sunday.

The Rams put together their victory in little pieces — a safety, four field goals of 26, 49, 43 and 41 yards by Bruce Gossett, a touchdown and the extra point. It was 7-3, Rams, at the close of the first quarter and 13-3 at the half. After a scoreless third quarter, the Rams posted eight points against the Pack's seven — on an 80-yard pass from Zeke Bratkowski to Elijah Pitts.

Much better than their 2-9 record indicates, the Rams are the first club to grab a sort of superiority on the Packers in 1964-65. In the last four games, the Rams have beaten Green Bay twice, lost a 6-3 test, and tied them.

Sunday's victory was the first for the Rams over Green Bay in Los Angeles since 1958. The sparse crowd of 39,733 cheered the Packers and booed the Rams when the two clubs took the field but the up-and-downish fans here got on the hometown bandwagon shortly after play started.

The Packers now have been held to three field goals and one touchdown in two games vs. the Rams. The Packers went after LA top lineman in the country, will go as high as it did for Dick Butkus last year. Butkus received a reported $200,000 for signing with the Chicago Bears, on 19 completions in 35 throws and 11 first downs by passing.

"I don't know what I'll do," he said. "I haven't really talked business with either one of them. A team in my home state game was virtually stopped will not be a factor. It all depends on the offers."

The offers can be astronomical. There was a report from halted with 21 yards in 10

We'll Need Help Now, Vince Says After Loss

LOS ANGELES — "The tipoff on the type of game we were playing came early... when we couldn't score a touchdown after recovering that fumble."

That was Packer Coach Vince Lombardi's first reaction to the assembled press after the Packers dropped a 21-10 decision to the Rams in the Coliseum Sunday.

"When we couldn't make a first down there I felt we were in for a rough afternoon," he said, adding with another thought:

"Sooner or later the Rams were going to win and it had to be us. They are much better than their record shows."

Need Help As to the race, Vince said "We'll need some help now. Somebody else must catch Baltimore."

The reporters offered various excuses for the Packers' loss, and the Packer Coach said "We just got beat, that's all, and we deserved what we got out there."

Lombardi also noted that Roman Gabriel did "real well" and that the Rams put on a strong rush on the Packer quarterbacks.

The Browns held the Packers to one touchdown in two games—ship game when St. Louis lost to Philadelphia and Chicago beat New York. Their victory coupled with the St. Louis and Rams had been especially tough New York losses gave the Browns a four-game lead with years, Bart Starr said "They only three left."

19 College Grid Teams Unbeaten

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Nineteen college football teams led by bowl-bound Michigan State, Arkansas and Nebraska, and Ivy League champion Dartmouth finished their season unbeaten, untied after games of Nov. 27.

Now they seem to have reversed the tables. I didn't think they were doing anything different from the past. They have an exceptionally strong defensive line."

Doug Hart almost had a key interception midway in the fourth quarter that could have turned the tide. "I had it in the palm of my right hand but it just bounced out and the worst part of it was Snow (Jack) was right right there to grab it," Hart said.

Hart, who slipped in front of Snow, had a clear field ahead.

Brodie Completes Five Touchdown Passes as 49ers Tounce Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL (AP) — San Francisco's quarterback John Brodie completed five touchdowns as the 49ers defeated the Minnesota Vikings 24-10 in a game that was a preview of the Super Bowl.

The 49ers ran up a 35-3 lead in the second quarter before Vikings quarterback Fran Tarkenton was benched and former Wisconsin star Ron VanderKelen took over to guide Minnesota to its three touchdowns.

It was the third straight widespread defeat for Minnesota, whose defense has surrendered the most points in the National Football League this season. Vikings opponents have tossed 13 scoring passes in the last three games.

Completed Six
Brodie completed only six passes in the first half, but four of them went for touchdowns. He threw 47 and 9 yards to John Crow, 20 yards to Dave Kopay and 39 to Bernie Casey. Kopay also recovered a team-mate's fumble in the end zone for another TD.

VanderKelen hit on a 21-yard touchdown pass to Gordie Smith for Minnesota's first touchdown just before the half ended.

With the 49ers adding a field goal and Brodie flipping another touchdown toss, this time for 30 yards to Dave Parks, San Francisco mounted its lead to 45-10 before Minnesota could score two more times in the last period. VanderKelen passed 6 yards for one of the touchdowns.

Minnesota moves next Sunday to Green Bay, whose Packers trounced the Vikings 38-13 a week ago in their only good offensive showing in six weeks.

Washington Rallies From 21-0 Deficit

Jurgensen Paces Skins' Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I sure am glad the fans let me stay in long enough to show what I could do."

There was a twinkle in his eye and a broad grin on his face as quarterback Sonny Jurgensen of the Washington Redskins said this Sunday.

He could afford to kid about the boos. It wound up as one of the best days in his nine years in the National Football League as Washington overcame a 21-0 deficit to beat Dallas 34-31 and move into a three-way tie for second place in the Eastern Division. Washington now has a 5-6 record, Dallas is 4-7.

In rallying the Redskins for three touchdowns in the fourth quarter — two in the last four minutes — the red-haired veteran connected on 26 of 42 passes for 411 yards, including three touchdowns.

It was the fourth time in his career that Jurgensen had gone over the 400-yard mark in passing in a single game. He is the only NFL player to do it more than once.

But it didn't start out that way. The first time Washington had the ball Jurgensen had a pass intercepted. The second time, he fumbled, and Cowboy tackle Bob Lilly ran it back to the Redskins' six to set up the first Dallas touchdown.

The third time the Redskins had the ball, halfback Charley Taylor fumbled and Dallas defensive back Cornell Green ran it back five yards for a second Cowboy touchdown.

Early in the second quarter, Mike Gaechter blocked a field goal try, picked up the ball and raced 60 yards for the third Dallas touchdown.

After the next kickoff, Jurgensen had two incomplete passes and was thrown for a nine-yard loss on third down. The boos began to roll.

At this point, Jurgensen had completed four of 13 passes for 28 yards, had one intercepted, fumbled and set up a Dallas touchdown and been thrown three times for a loss of 22 yards.

"What could he do," asked Coach Bill McPeak. "His pass protection broke down. He had no time to pass. The receivers weren't holding on to the ball."

Jurgensen got one touchdown back on a 26-yard pass to Taylor before the half, and picked up another on a 90-yard drive in the third quarter. But the score was 24-13 as the fourth quarter began.

Jurgensen then hit six out of seven passes, the last four in a row, to take Washington 75 yards in 11 plays. Dan Lewis bucked over from the two and the score was 24-20.

With less than six minutes remaining, Dallas' Don Meredith pitched a 53-yard scoring strike to Frank Clarke and the Cowboys led 31-20.

In four passes, three of them complete, the Redskins moved 67 yards for a touchdown. The score came on a 10-yard pass from Jurgensen to Bobby Mitchell.

With 1:49 left, the Redskins got the ball on their own 20. Thirty-seven seconds later by the scoreboard clock they had the winning touchdown.

Jurgensen ran for nine yards, missed a pass that wound up with an interference penalty, then tossed 22 yards to Jerry Smith, 35 to Mitchell and five to Angelo Coia for the touchdown.

Pete Retzlaff Leads Eagles Past Cardinals

Veteran End Grabs Passes, Scores 3 TDs in 28-24 Win

By MIKE RECHT

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ask safety man Monk Bailey of the St. Louis Cardinals where the action is and he'll tell you to stick with Pete Retzlaff — if you can.

Bailey spoke from experience after trying in vain to keep up with the Philadelphia tight end Sunday afternoon. From a distance, Bailey saw Retzlaff catch nine passes for 148 yards and three touchdowns that sparked the Eagles to a 28-24 National Football League victory over the Cardinals.

"I hear he was playing with a bum ankle and he still beat the heck out of me," said a stunned Bailey, a second-year man making his first start for the Cardinals.

"One time he twisted me around so fast I didn't have time to put my hand down to catch myself and my face mask stuck in the mud. I took my eyes off him several times to see where the ball was and he was gone."

Years of Experience

"You can't take 11 years of experience out of the defensive backfield and not have it hurt," Retzlaff said, referring to the injuries to Larry Wilson and Jerry Stovall of St. Louis that put Bailey and Carl Silvestri in the game.

"But young Bailey did a good job. I've had easier afternoons against some of the veterans."

Retzlaff's afternoon gave him 54 catches and 11 touchdowns after starting with only one catch against the Cardinals in the first game of the season. The best previous statistics turned out by the 33-year-old ace in his 10th NFL season was 57 catches in 1963. He caught eight touchdown passes in 1961 and 1964.

Winning Drive

Retzlaff caught three other passes for 51 yards and three first downs that kept alive the Eagles' 73-yard winning drive before catching the 10-yard clincher from Norm Snead with 2½ minutes remaining.

His other touchdown passes were for 23 and five yards and his other three catches for the day gave the Eagles key first downs that set up two scores.

"We look to Pete on the big plays," said Philadelphia coach Joe Kuharch. "He reads defenses quickly and always finds the open zone."

Arbanas Stars as Chiefs Dump Oilers

Parilli Gamble Pays Off as Boston Edges New York in Thriller, 27-23

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs have forgotten about the trouble Fred Arbanas had with his eye. The only trouble was Arbanas was beginning to suspect the Chiefs also had forgotten about him.

"They just haven't been throwing to me as far as I'm concerned," Arbanas said recently in discussing the loss of sight in his left eye. "As far as I'm concerned they don't have confidence in me. My right eye does all the work but as long as they throw it near me I can catch it."

The Chiefs threw it near him Sunday and the big tight end who made the All-American Football League team last year caught two touchdowns passes as the Chiefs ripped the Houston Oilers 52-21.

In the only other game scheduled, Boston upended New York 27-23 and enabled idle Buffalo to clinch the Eastern Division title.

Arbanas was walking down a Kansas City street last December when "the next thing I knew I was hit."

Unknown Assailant

What had happened was that he had taken a blind-side punch from an unknown assailant.

"If he hit a normal man like that he might have killed him," Arbanas explained. "The police and the doctors said he had to hit me with brass knuckles the way I was cut around the eye. I had two operations but I haven't had any real trouble."

Still, going into the Houston game he had caught only 16 passes and scored one touchdown.

"Arbanas is playing as well as he did before," said Coach Hank Stram. "I had forgotten about his eye. The fact he hasn't been passed to is typical of a tight end position. Certainly nothing was intended."

"I'd just like to be used a little more," said Arbanas. "If we don't throw to everybody it's like using 10 or nine men."

There was no doubt the Chiefs used 11 men against the Oilers and Arbanas was one of the keys, doubling his entire touchdown output for the season by grabbing a five-yard pass from

Grabowski and Nobis Centers Of Battle

The Midwest that one back from the sector had suggested that the bidding for his services start in the $500,000 neighborhood — which would top the figure the New York Jets reportedly gave quarterback Joe Namath last year.

The name linked with the report was Grabowski, the power-running fullback who broke Grange's career and single game rushing records at Illinois.

The NFL signed eight of its first-round choices, Shay going with Minnesota, Indiana defensive end Randy Beisler with Philadelphia, Michigan tackle Tom Mack with Los Angeles, Kentucky tackle Sam Ball with Baltimore, Minnesota tackle Gale Gillingham with Green Bay, Texas A&I quarterback Randy Johnson with Atlanta, Iowa guard John Niland with Dallas and West Virginia fullback Dick Lettridge with Pittsburgh.

Not Selected in AFL

Beisler, Mack and Gillingham were not selected in the AFL draft.

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, four other NFL first-round choices are not signed, Oklahoma linebacker Carl McAdams, picked by St. Louis; Princeton kicker Charlie Gogolak, tapped by Washington; Missouri tackle Francis Peay, selected by New York, and Massachusetts end Milt Morin, taken by Cleveland.

The AFL signed three first-round picks, Michigan tackle Bill Yearby by New York, Minnesota end Aaron Brown by Kansas City and Kentucky halfback Rodger Bird by Oakland. None was picked in the NFL draft.

Disappointing Kill Estimate 75,000 Deer Taken During Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wisconsin's deer hunting season ended Sunday afternoon amid cold, biting winds and with a apparently disappointing kill.

Conservation officials were not ready to hazard a guess on the final bag for the nine-day season, but observers estimated it at about 75,000, down considerably from the 1964 take.

The human toll was 24, up three. Six hunters were shot fatally and 18 died of apparent heart attacks.

No deaths were reported on the final day.

Mild weather was blamed on the opening weekend for keeping deer in the swampy lowlands where forage remained good. The chilly temperatures and blustery winds that whipped up clouds of snow Sunday obscured hunters' vision and did little to aid the take. Many hunters headed toward their homes Friday as the weather worsened.

Came Out Backwards

"The weather came out backwards for hunters," said a Conservation Department spokesman.

The department had predicted a kill of 93,000, equal to the number bagged in last year's nine-day season. But the take the first three days when more than half of the deer kill is usually registered was just above 46,000. Hunting conditions did not improve measurably the rest of the season.

Wisconsin had licensed 400,000 hunters and conservation officials estimated the herd of deer at 600,000. But hunters complained bucks appeared more scarce this fall and challenged Conservation Department estimates.

Most of the human fatalities came on the opening weekend.

Garrett's '20' Retired at USC

Heisman Winner May Not Sign Pro Contract Until '66

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Half-back Mike Garrett's No. 20 was officially retired today as rumors flew regarding the future in professional football for the Heisman Award winner from the University of Southern California.

Garrett was in New York for a television appearance, and later the guest of honor at the annual Heisman banquet.

He was reluctant to discuss his future after winding up his college career Saturday in Southern Cal's 56-6 victory over Wyoming.

Garrett set a national collegiate rushing record for a three-year career, with a total of 3,221 yards. It broke the old mark of 3,168 set by Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco in the 1949-50-51 period.

Garrett was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, and rumors persisted that Oakland of the rival American League was in the market for his services.

One rumor even said the Oakland club was willing to go as high as $300,000, stretched over two or more seasons.

Most observers here feel that Garrett would be a valuable asset but not to the extent of $300,000.

Garrett himself parried questions, saying he wouldn't make up his mind what to do until later this winter. He said he might want to finish out his year in baseball at Southern Cal this spring.

Hiskey Wins Cajun Classic Nips Wysong in Playoff; Nicklaus Edged by 1 Stroke

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus hit his second shot to the green on the 18th hole at Oakbourne Country Club course and left himself a 12-foot putt for a birdie, which would have given him a 68 for the final round of the $32,000 Cajun Classic, final PGA tourney of 1965.

The Golden Bear, a slight smile on his face, walked to the scorer's table to check the results of earlier finishers.

"Who?" asked the Masters champion. Then he laughed and said, "I'm only kidding."

The 25-year-old Ohio strong-boy's putt slid two feet past the cup and he had to settle for a 69.

The three-under-par score on the 6,555-yard course meant big Jack was one stroke shy of the leader after the regulation 72 holes.

Babe Hiskey and Dudley Wysong did have it and Hiskey, who was born on the edge of an Idaho golf course, canned a fast putt from 20 feet out to win the title on the second hole of the sudden death.

Nicklaus knew who Wysong was. He had beaten the Southern Methodist graduate in the finals of the U.S. Amateur in 1961. He's seen Hiskey's name near the bottom of the list of also-rans in other tourneys.

Neither Hiskey nor Wysong, each 26, had ever won an official tourney.

Stewart Arrives for Talks With Russians On Nuclear Arms

Pravda Reports Hope Visit Will Lead to 'Normalization'

MOSCOW (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on Viet Nam and the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons.

The Communist party organ Pravda said it hoped Stewart's four-day visit would contribute "to the normalization of the international situation." But British sources here held little hope of major results.

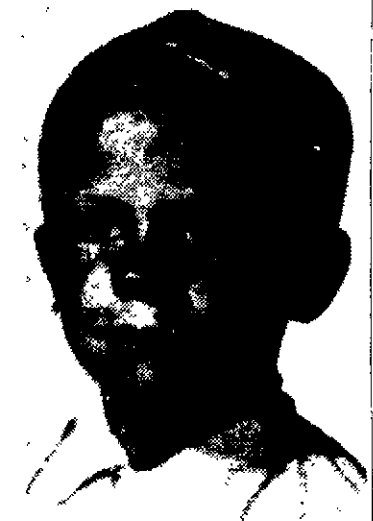

Accompanied by Lord Chalfont, Britain's minister for disarmament, Stewart was scheduled to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Tuesday. Stewart also was expected to meet with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Communist party Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev.

The result of the talks will be a main topic when British Prime Minister Harold Wilson meets with President Johnson in the United States next month.

Shiocton Boy Falls Through Ice, Drowns

Authorities Warn Of Treading Early On Valley Waters

Outagamie County authorities today cautioned persons, especially children, against venturing onto ice coated waters this early in the season. The warning came after a nine-year-old Shiocton boy drowned after breaking through ice on a drainage ditch while skating near his home Sunday.

The victim was Gerald A. Buelow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buelow, route 1, Shiocton. He drowned about 1 p.m. while skating with a brother, Robert, 12, according to Outagamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps.

The boy, a third grader at Shiocton Elementary School, was skating about 200 feet from his brother when he plunged through an inch of ice, Kemps said.

Used Branch Robert tried to reach his brother with a branch, but his attempts were unsuccessful. Gerald reportedly attempted to brace himself on the ice several times, but when he pulled up, the ice would break around him, Kemps said.

Robert then ran the three-quarters of a mile home and returned with another brother, Leonard, 27. Their mother called the Clintonville Fire Department rescue squad which recovered the body about five minutes after arrival. Firemen found the body in about six feet of water.

Assisting the coroner and firemen was Lt. Joseph Vanden Oever of the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department.

The body was released to the Eberhardt and Hoh Funeral Home, Clintonville.

Police Follow Slim Trail of State Convict

Spotted Sleeping In Car in Summit, But He Slips Away

DELAFIELD (AP) — The search for Ralph Gruender, the first man to flee over the State Prison walls in 18 years, returned to Waukesha County early today after a town of Summit policeman said he had seen the fugitive sleeping in a car which had been stolen last week in Brookfield.

The sheriff's department said the policeman related the spotted car on the side of the road around 3.15 and saw Gruender sleeping inside. The policeman asked him for his driver's license. Gruender reached for his pocket as if to produce the license but put the car in gear and took off at high speed without lights, the sheriff's office said.

Several squads of deputies searched the area without success.

Personal Appeal

Meanwhile Gruender's mother issued a personal appeal for him to surrender.

ONLY ADD an "I wish my son would give himself up," said Mrs. Calph Gruender of Delafield, his mother. "All he can do is run, and where is he going to run to?" The answer puzzled authorities, who followed a trail of stolen cars from near the State Prison at Waupun to the Delafield area to Milwaukee suburbs without catching up with the fugitive.

The last reports that Gruender had been sighted came Friday night from a service station owner in Glendale and Saturday from a tavern operator in Saukville, west of Port Washington. Both reports triggered Ozaukee County searches that netted nothing.

Knowles Sees High Cost of Medicare

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — To make all of Wisconsin residents eligible for medical care under the Social Security program recently authorized by Congress may cost the state and localities multi-million dollar sums, Gov. Warren Knowles said today.

The governor said a special commission of state and local government leaders and private citizens will meet here Dec. 6 to start a study of the problems involved in the implementation of the program with respect to thousands of persons who will not automatically be covered because of their ordinary Social Security eligibility.

They would include the unemployed and others now outside the Social Security program, and thousands of persons now receiving various forms of public assistance, including aid to dependent children, state and other public hospital patients, and others.

Full Implementation If full Wisconsin legislative implementation of the national program is desired, additional benefit eligibility for Wisconsin persons would amount to more than $100 million, the governor said.

He said the Medicare Act becomes effective July 1, and the legislature will return to the capitol to work on unfinished business next May.

In the event of full implementation, some state and county costs for medical services now financed through relief programs would be reduced, he explained, but there could be a net additional cost to the state of about $29 million a

Defense Secretary Says Force Will be Built Up To Meet Red Challenge

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara ended his visit to Viet Nam today by declaring that the United States would throw in as many fighting men as needed to wage the war against the Communists.

McNamara told newsmen at the airport after his fact-finding tour that his most dramatic impression is that "We have stopped losing the war."

He added, however, that the increased ferocity of Viet Cong

Thanksgiving Road Death Toll Exceeds 600

Stoughton Man Among Fatalities Listed in State

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's Thanksgiving weekend traffic toll reached 602 today, the highest death tally for the period in eight years of record-keeping.

Until this year, the highest count was 554 in 1964. With some states still to verify final figures, it appeared this year's record for the 102-hour period which ended at midnight, local time, might go higher.

Forty traffic deaths were reported in New York State, 39 in California and 36 in Texas. Ohio counted 33 deaths.

Traffic death tolls have been recorded for the four-day Thanksgiving weekend period since 1958.

AP Tally

The Associated Press tally started at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Although most of the traffic deaths were single fatalities, scattered multiple-death accidents helped boost the final count.

A collision Sunday resulted in the death of three members of a Norman, Okla., family and a teen-age girl riding in their auto as they drove to church. Three persons were seriously injured in the mishap.

A collision Saturday near Radcliff, Ky., killed two brothers and their sister on their way to the funeral of a relative.

Three persons lost their lives Thanksgiving night near Punta Gorda, Fla., in a head-on collision. The same day near Dayton, Tex., five persons were killed in a crash.

Snow made driving conditions hazardous in some parts of the nation over the weekend.

Traffic fatalities over a four-day Thanksgiving weekend have and North Vietnamese attacks in recent weeks indicated "a clear decision by Hanoi to escalate infiltration and raise the level of the conflict."

He said these acts must be countered, adding: "The South Vietnamese government will further increase its military strength."

Four Battalions

On the eve of McNamara's arrival, four Viet Cong battalions with North Vietnamese support troops handed the South Vietnamese one of their worst setbacks of the war. In an attack on troops holding an abandoned rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon, the Communists knocked out an entire government regiment as an effective fighting force. American advisers also perished.

It was feared the casualties, when finally totaled, might be the highest of the war to date.

McNamara declined to speculate on the total U.S. forces that will be required but his comments heightened speculation that he will advise President Johnson to increase American ground forces in Viet Nam from 165,000 to 300,000 men and step up air attacks on the North Vietnamese jungle supply routes.

Minimum Requests

These were believed to be the minimum requests of U.S. military commanders during their talks with McNamara during his whirlwind tour.

Before heading back to Washington, McNamara made a quick trip to U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division headquarters, in the central highlands 280 miles north of Saigon. He met some of the men who fought the Communists in the bitter Ia Drang Valley battle two weeks ago and flew over the battle scene.

Klansmen On Trial in Rights Death

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Federal prosecutors put three Ku Klux Klansmen on trial today on charges resulting from the killing of a white civil rights worker, Viola Gregg Liuzzo.

Each of the Klan members — one of them already acquitted in state court, the others still awaiting trial — could be sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $5,000 under the indictment based on an old law used mostly in the past to safeguard voting and property rights.

Nowhere in the indictment is there any mention of the slaying of Mrs. Liuzzo, a Detroit housewife, which touched off the prosecutions.

Believes Them Unjustified

Johnson Trying to Press Rates Of Money Lenders' Interest

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson hopes to bring pressure to bear against what he believes are unjustified profits being rung up by the nation's lenders from overly high interest rates.

If he has found no way to curb the money changers in his temple of economic stability the President is ready to give them a hard time about the mounting interest rates they are charging rates, still has more than four the government, when it is forced, as it is continually, to borrow more and more money.

Before Conference

Human Activity Code For Moon Is Advised

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was advised today to seek international agreement on "a code for human activity on the moon" to prevent the earth satellite from becoming a military base for any nation.

The proposal for a moon code, made by a citizens committee of scientists, space experts and educators, was one of several put before a White House Conference on International Cooperation opening here today.

Another panel proposed that the United States undertake a three-year program costing up to $100 million a year to help other nations develop and carry out birth control programs to check population expansion.

Food Production In a related proposal, another group said world food production must be tripled by the year 2000 to feed an expected seven billion people on earth. It urged the United States to assist other countries in increasing food production as rapidly as possible.

In proposing a moon pact, the committee took note of the space race between the United States and the Soviet Union and said that "with multiple manned landings on the moon in prospect within the next several years," rules for its use could be negotiated through the United Nations Committee for Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

Essential provisions of such a treaty, the committee said would be "suspension of sovereignty claims, free access by all for scientific purposes, exclusion of military maneuvers and weaponry and a verification procedure."

In a speech prepared for the opening session, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the conference, composed of some 5,000 distinguished Americans, that in the search for world peace and international cooperation "we need big blueprints and ideas."

Two Small Children Die in Milwaukee Fire

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Two small children died today in a fire at their home on the North-making racial progress and east Side. They were identified as Cathleen Gons, 4, and Elvira Hampton, 2, the daughters of "the opportunities, rights and encouragement" they deserve. Mrs. Estelle Hampton.

22 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Influence Family Purchases

Valley Teen-Agers Spending Money Parents Never Had

Teen-agers in Outagamie, Calumet, Waupaca and Winnebago counties have come into their own. They have wealth such as their parents never dreamed of at their age.

They have plans, ideas and an influence over the family pocketbook that was unheard of in former years.

Mother has virtually abdicated in their favor. Time was when she was the family purchasing agent. She still does is other family purchasing, most of the buying, but only placed at $30 billion nationally, after lending an attentive ear to what junior has to say.

On the other hand, junior does his own purchasing without consultation, except among his own contemporaries.

And he does plenty. On the basis of recent surveys, Outagamie County's teen-agers are spending in the neighborhood of $4,957,000 of their own money per year.

The 3,403 teen-agers in Calumet County are spending $1,664,000, in Waupaca County 4,896 youths are spending $2,350,000, and in Winnebago County 14,380 teen-agers are spending $7,032,000.

It goes for records, soft drinks, toiletries, cosmetics, entertainment, food, cameras, automobiles, sports equipment, fountain pens and many other products.

The spending total is arrived at from studies and surveys made by the National Education Association, the Small Business Administration and the American Marketing Association.

National Income of $11 Billion They find that the nation's teen-agers have an income of no less than $11 billion a year, equivalent to $489 for every youngster between 13 and 19.

In Outagamie County, it amounts to a healthy $4,957,000 for the 10,138 who are now in the teen-age bracket.

Some of them earn part of this money by doing odd jobs, after school and during summer vacations. The rest comes from their weekly allowances, which vary with their age and requirements.

Such money must be spent quickly before it burns holes in the pockets. Out to attract it are merchandisers of everything from skate boards to stuffed dogs.

SEYMOUR — A proposed city budget of $396,231 which would continue the present tax rate of $32 per $1,000 of valuation will be presented for public hearing at 8 p.m. today at the city hall.

12th Annual Album of Harmony Reviewer, Audience in Accord; Barbershop Harmony Pleases All

BY ED VAN BERKEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KAUKAUNA — In writing a review, the reviewer should take into consideration audience acceptance of a program rather than merely his personal feelings on the endeavor. But no such problem existed at the 12th annual Kaukauna - Little Chute Album of Barbershop Harmony here Saturday night. The reviewer and audience seemed in complete accord.

Lovers of barbershop music filled the Civic Auditorium to overflowing and were treated to some professional quartet singing and moments of humor provided by light banter between numbers by individual quartets as well as a good share of fun provided by the Mad Hatters of Sheboygan.

Highlights of the program, the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers, proved again they have complete mastery over any number they attempt to harmonize, whether a traditional barbershop selection or a number more suitable for individual or chorus rendition.

Local Favorites — The Captivators, a local quartet from the Kaukauna - Little Chute Chapter, served notice they will be going far in barbershop circles as they displayed poise and fine blending in a variety of songs. Persons who heard the group in last year's program expressed surprise at the growth of the quartet which even last year showed great promise. It was not hard to understand how they took fourth in Land O' Lakes district competition and one can see nothing but further improvement for the singers with higher rankings in future contests.

The Bad-Aires, Madison, last minute substitutes for the Fantastics and no strangers to the local audience, again proved their versatility and continued as "When You're Singing" their practice of giving each individual in the group a chance to demonstrate his vocal talents.

The program opened with the Kaukauna-Little Chute Chorus. All groups were called on to under the direction of Keith Miller, offering the sentimental ballad, "Forgive Me for Loving You" and "Strolling Home with Jenny," followed by the crowd pleasing "Tiger Rag." Evidence of many months of hard practice was evident in the renditions. All real crowd pleasers which put the audience in the mood for the quartets.

Other selections — The Captivators sang "I Feel a Song Coming On," "Row, Row, Row," and "I Really Don't Want to Know," featuring Clyde Schumacher, lead. In the second half they offered "Sure This Ireland" and "On the Lone Prairie," both of which gave the group an opportunity to show their fine voice blending and versatility.

The Schmitt Brothers followed with such favorites as "The Girl That I Married," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," and "The Animals" and concluded the second half with "Asleep in the Deep." Featuring Frank Schmitt, bass, "Cotton Field" and "Galloway Bay." The encore was the old stand-by, Brahms' "Lullaby."

The Mad-Aires concluded the first half with a parody on "In the Good Old Summer Time" and "Mobile." The second half of the program saw them offering "Bye, Bye Blues" and "Scarlet Ribbon" in which all four voices were given play.

Fun Quartet — The deadpan Mad Hatters, who opened the second half, kept the crowd laughing despite never saying a word. Their entrance from the back of the audience and side doors was slow and unorganized as was their appearance on stage. For each selection they changed hats and offered such numbers as "When You're Singing" which they never did, and "Minnie the Mermaid" Much of audience laughter at their antics overrode the singing. All groups were called on to give encores in both portions of the program and many of the faithful followed the units to the Afterglow where more good harmony was rendered. Paul Schmitt led the audience in half-time community singing and it was difficult to tell who was enjoying the fun the most, the leader or the audience. The merry moods generated by the quartets made it simple for Schmitt to encourage the assembly to join in song.

12th Annual Album of Harmony Reviewer, Audience in Accord; Barbershop Harmony Pleases All

BY ED VAN BERKEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KAUKAUNA — In writing a review, the reviewer should take into consideration audience acceptance of a program rather than merely his personal feelings on the endeavor. But no such problem existed at the 12th annual Kaukauna - Little Chute Album of Barbershop Harmony here Saturday night. The reviewer and audience seemed in complete accord.

Lovers of barbershop music filled the Civic Auditorium to overflowing and were treated to some professional quartet singing and moments of humor provided by light banter between numbers by individual quartets as well as a good share of fun provided by the Mad Hatters of Sheboygan.

Highlights of the program, the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers, proved again they have complete mastery over any number they attempt to harmonize, whether a traditional barbershop selection or a number more suitable for individual or chorus rendition.

Local Favorites — The Captivators, a local quartet from the Kaukauna - Little Chute Chapter, served notice they will be going far in barbershop circles as they displayed poise and fine blending in a variety of songs. Persons who heard the group in last year's program expressed surprise at the growth of the quartet which even last year showed great promise. It was not hard to understand how they took fourth in Land O' Lakes district competition and one can see nothing but further improvement for the singers with higher rankings in future contests.

The Bad-Aires, Madison, last minute substitutes for the Fantastics and no strangers to the local audience, again proved their versatility and continued as "When You're Singing" their practice of giving each individual in the group a chance to demonstrate his vocal talents.

The program opened with the Kaukauna-Little Chute Chorus. All groups were called on to under the direction of Keith Miller, offering the sentimental ballad, "Forgive Me for Loving You" and "Strolling Home with Jenny," followed by the crowd pleasing "Tiger Rag." Evidence of many months of hard practice was evident in the renditions. All real crowd pleasers which put the audience in the mood for the quartets.

Other selections — The Captivators sang "I Feel a Song Coming On," "Row, Row, Row," and "I Really Don't Want to Know," featuring Clyde Schumacher, lead. In the second half they offered "Sure This Ireland" and "On the Lone Prairie," both of which gave the group an opportunity to show their fine voice blending and versatility.

The Schmitt Brothers followed with such favorites as "The Girl That I Married," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," and "The Animals" and concluded the second half with "Asleep in the Deep." Featuring Frank Schmitt, bass, "Cotton Field" and "Galloway Bay." The encore was the old stand-by, Brahms' "Lullaby."

The Mad-Aires concluded the first half with a parody on "In the Good Old Summer Time" and "Mobile." The second half of the program saw them offering "Bye, Bye Blues" and "Scarlet Ribbon" in which all four voices were given play.

Fun Quartet — The deadpan Mad Hatters, who opened the second half, kept the crowd laughing despite never saying a word. Their entrance from the back of the audience and side doors was slow and unorganized as was their appearance on stage. For each selection they changed hats and offered such numbers as "When You're Singing" which they never did, and "Minnie the Mermaid" Much of

Court Asked to Clarify Ruling On Warrants

Milwaukee County Assistant District Attorney Asks Action

MADISON (AP)—The Wisconsin Supreme Court was asked today to take original jurisdiction in a case that could clarify its recent decision stripping prosecutors of authority to issue warrants.

Robert E. Sutton, an assistant Milwaukee County district attorney, asked the court to take the case because he said Circuit Judge Max Raskin of Milwaukee had "erroneously divested" himself of it.

Raskin accepted a motion for dismissal of the case Nov. 5, three days after the high court handed down a precedent setting decision which said district attorneys lack the authority to issue warrants.

Raskin had ruled that a warrant charging Anthony Pipito of Milwaukee with burglary was invalid because it had been issued by the district attorney's office.

Two Avenues

Edward Neubacker, a Milwaukee attorney representing Pipito, argued against Sutton. He told the court that the city had two avenues opened to it for further action in the case—appeal and the reissuance of a warrant.

Chief Justice George Currie said the court would take the question of original jurisdiction under advisement. One of the foremost questions the high court would determine, if it accepted jurisdiction, is the retroactivity of its earlier decision.

Sutton said more than 35 cases involving felony complaints are pending in Milwaukee County. He said judges await further direction from the Supreme Court.

He argued in a brief that Judge Raskin's decision was a mistake of law. "There can be no question but that the court declined jurisdiction on the basis that the warrant upon which the defendant was arrested and the complaint upon which the warrant was based were constitutionally contaminated," Sutton said.

"The state urges that said ruling was erroneous as a matter of law," the brief said.

Delay Not Likely, NASA Officials Say

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The space agency said today that an electrical problem with a spacecraft power unit was not expected to delay Saturday's Gemini 7 launching.

A spokesman made the statement after engineers wrestled through the night with the trouble. First they installed a new power unit in the spacecraft, discovered it probably would cause the same difficulty, yanked it out and replaced it with the original unit.

"The problem is not completely solved at this time," the spokesman said. "Evaluation is continuing. But the situation looks good and we don't expect it will delay the launching."

Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. are to ride Gemini 7 into space for a 14-day endurance mission. Nine days later, Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford are to take off in an attempt to rendezvous within a few feet of Gemini 7.

West Berliners Apply for Holiday Visas to East

BERLIN (AP) — West Berliners began applying today for passes to cross through the Berlin wall to visit relatives in the Communist half of the divided city over the Christmas holidays.

People began lining up at 4 a.m. at the 16 offices set up to handle the applications. The doors opened six hours later.

Staff, said he had been "surprised by the intensity and scale" of the recent attacks by the Viet Cong and regular North Vietnamese forces.

"But," he added, "I think they are surprised at the price they have to pay in launching these attacks. Their fatalities this year are 100 per cent over last year."

McNamara declined to indicate what measures might be taken to halt the Communist flow of men and supplies into South Viet Nam along the Ho Chi Minh Trail, a network of jungle routes through neighboring Laos and Cambodia.

"Their actions will require counteractions," he said without spelling out any details.

Communist North Viet Nam also saw the McNamara visit as a prelude to broader U.S. involvement in the war.

"McNamara went to Saigon to intensify and widen the war of aggression," said the official North Vietnamese paper Nhan Dan. "But it may be safely predicted that the more the war is intensified, the more costly will be their failure."

Gov. Knowles Sees High Cost Of Medicare

The study commission will make recommendation on possible legislation to be asked at the spring legislative session, he said. Among the members of the group are Mayor Clarence Mitchell, Appleton, Lawrence Johnson, Door-Kewaunee County assemblyman and head of the Wisconsin County Boards Association, and Norman Whitford, Winnebago County welfare director.

The commission also will consider whether the state will suspend the so-called Kerr-Mills program of medical aid to the needy, which has enrolled thousands of low-income Wisconsin residents and was originally conceived as a transition program in anticipation of Social Security medical care coverage.

The governor also announced today that airplanes of the

The emphasis will be on toys and food for children, the governor said. The Wisconsin aircraft will deliver such gifts to the Minnesota National Guard which will, in turn, relay them overseas for delivery after Dec. 10, he said.

Britons Postpone Strike of Bakers

LONDON (AP) — Britain's bakers union called off its bread strikes today but only for a week.

The union said that unless the bakeries by Dec. 7 give an interim wage increase of $2.80 a week and a promise to discuss its bigger claim, it will call out all of its 32,000 members.

The bakers are demanding a minimum weekly wage of $42. The present minimum is $32.20, but overtime and bonuses bring take home pay to $56.

Last week a series of lightning strikes hit major towns, bringing long queues for bread.

Thanksgiving Road Death Toll Exceeds 600

ranged from a low of 442 in 1960 to this year's new high.

For comparative purposes, The Associated Press conducted a survey of traffic fatalities for the non-holiday period of 102 hours from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10 to midnight Sunday, Nov. 14.

It showed 566 persons dead in traffic accidents.

The National Safety Council regards Thanksgiving a holiday celebrated mostly at home and did not estimate the number of traffic deaths for the weekend.

The largest traffic death toll for a four-day holiday was that of the Christmas period of 1955 when 706 persons died. The lowest traffic toll for a four-day holiday since World War II was the Memorial Day period of 1946. That count was 159.

Wisconsin Death

Wisconsin's Thanksgiving weekend toll jumped to more than double the death count for the same holiday span last year.

The death of a motorist whose car door slammed on his neck Sunday boosted the state's fatality figure for the 102-hour weekend to 11.

The year-long toll reached 922, compared with 978 one year ago. Wisconsin listed five Thanksgiving holiday traffic fatalities last year.

David Larson, 26, Stoughton, was killed when he suffered a broken neck in a rare accident Sunday near Stoughton. Authorities said Larson had stepped from his car when it began to roll and he tried to jump back in. The car struck a parked auto, pinning Larson between the two vehicles as the door slammed on his neck.

Robert Ripp, 16, of rural Evansville, died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday night when the car in which he was riding rolled over east of Evansville in Rock County.

Volcanic Shocks Shake Vesuvius

NAPLES Italy (AP) — A light earth shock was felt early today in villages on the lower slopes of volcanic Mt. Vesuvius.

The Vesuvius Observatory said the shocks were of volcanic origin. Vesuvius, which once destroyed Pompeii, has been inactive since the end of World War II.

N. Vietnamese Forces Among Best in Asia

McNamara Should Not be Surprised By War's Intensity

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, now in Viet Nam on his seventh visit, expresses surprise at the "intensity and scale of attacks by the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces in recent weeks."

He didn't have to be surprised. Those forces are probably the toughest in Asia. In their eight-year war with France they killed and wounded over 130,000 of the French forces, suffered perhaps more than 200,000 casualties themselves.

McNamara's "surprise" could be taken as an example of how this country and France underestimated the spirit of those Vietnamese who get and got their leadership from the old Communist, Ho Chi Minh, leader of North Viet Nam.

Lost Optimism
During the first two years of President John F. Kennedy's administration McNamara kept coming back from Viet Nam full of optimism and only slowly, after Kennedy's death, began saying the war might be long and hard.

This country is paying the penalty for having failed to understand the quality of its opponents and for having failed to do more to defeat it.

Now Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. historian and special aide to Kennedy, writes of the late president's reaction when he heard that South Viet Nam's President Ngo Dinh Diem, had been killed, not by Communists but by his own people.

Diem, backed by this country for eight years, was assass-

Regional Planner to Address Kiwanis Club
LITTLE CHUTE — Eugene Franchetti, director of the Fox Valley Regional Planning commission, will be guest speaker for a Kiwanis Club luncheon at 6 p.m. Tuesday at Hammen's Restaurant.

Franchetti will explain the purpose of the commission and benefits derived by its members. Plans will be discussed for the installation of officers Dec. 7 and the Christmas party for members and their wives Dec. 14.

In his book just out, "A Thousand Days," Schlesinger says Kennedy was "somber and shaken."

"I had not seen him so depressed since the Bay of Pigs. No doubt he realized that Viet Nam was his great failure in foreign policy, and that he had never really given it his full attention."

The failure to understand what was happening in Viet Nam, and what was needed to offset the Communist thrust, began long ago.

The French, holding Viet Nam as a colony since the 19th century, were driven out by the Japanese in World War II. After the war the French returned.

They had done so little for the Vietnamese that at the time of the war 90 per cent were illiterate. Under Ho Chi Minh the Vietnamese, and not all of them, Communists, resisted. Full war began in 1946 and lasted until 1954.

French Quit
Then, crushed the French had to quit. They were so weak that from 1950 to 1954 the United States had to help them with arms and supplies.

Since the French couldn't have carried on the war without U.S. help, this country could have insisted, but didn't, that the French begin to grant the Vietnamese the independence they were waiting for.

After the French pull-out, Viet Nam was divided into the Communist north and then on-Communist south. This country began helping the south.

But in President Diem this country supported a dictator who was loathed and finally killed by his own people. It was after his death, when South Viet Nam began to disintegrate under Viet Cong pressure, that this country gradually got into the war itself, directly.

Juvenile Boys Admit School Break-in, Shoplifting Cases

LITTLE CHUTE — Village police have apprehended two juvenile boys, ages 13 and 14, and referred them to juvenile authorities after they admitted breaking into St. John Grade School Thursday and stealing money and pens from desks.

When questioned by police, the boys also admitted shoplifting. The boys were taken to the St. John Grade School and Prange's Budget Center, Appleton. A tip from adults who saw the boys near the school resulted in their apprehension.

Social security monthly benefits play a considerable part in stop working, he noted.

Tips for Highway Safety

Each year an increasing amount of travel on Wisconsin highways by out-of-state motorists can be noted by observing the license plates on vehicles from other jurisdictions.

However, accidents continue to be largely of the home-grown variety, with the majority of mishaps occurring within the county of a driver's residence, according to the Motor Vehicle Department.

During 1964 there were 138,188 vehicles involved in 79,303 accidents causing death, injury or total property damage of $100 or more. Figures show 90.2 per cent of the vehicles were of Wisconsin registration.

Illinois vehicles were involved in 2.8 per cent of our state's accidents, Minnesota 1.3 per cent, Michigan .6 per cent and Iowa .3 per cent. Cars from foreign countries were involved in only 76 accidents, or 1 per cent of the total.

Car Damaged By Fire at New London

Department Also Answers Alarm at Edison Wood Firm

NEW LONDON — A car driven by Kenneth Otto, 336 Nash St., Hortonville, was damaged extensively about 7:45 a.m. today when fire broke out in its engine.

The fire department was called by city police. Otto was travelling north on U.S. 45 about two miles south of here when the fire started. Dry chemicals and water were used to extinguish the blaze in the rear-engine compact car.

No estimate of the damage was made. Firemen were called to the Edison Wood Products Co. at 7:13 a.m. today when the automatic alarm on the "hog" sounded. (The "hog" is a machine which grinds wood scraps into small particles for use in the boiler.) No damage resulted from the fire.

Your Money's Worth
Great Society Program
Guide to be Published

BY SYLVIA PORTER
If you were a blind or otherwise disabled U.S. citizen seeking federal assistance, which of the 39 separate federal programs offering aid to the handicapped would be most appropriate for you? If you need direct financial aid — as an elderly individual, a struggling small businessman, a rural farmer — which of today's 52 separate federal economic really need this many separate efforts? How good is the coordination and communication between each of the programs? Are we putting too much effort on some projects, not enough on others? How well do the federal programs mesh with state, local and private efforts? Most important, how effectively are we translating this maze of economic opportunity into meaningful long-term help?

"This book gives us an opportunity to answer for the first time a lot of searching questions we should be asking about our federal anti-poverty programs," says OEO chief Sargent Shriver. The Great Society "guide," in short, is only a primer.

"Federal Programs for Individual and Community Improvement" will be distributed to 200,000 local governments, schools, voluntary agencies and other groups throughout the nation. It will index 252 federal programs run by 16 different federal agencies from the Agriculture Dept. to the Veterans Administration. It will show clearly exactly what kind of assistance is available to whom and where to get detailed information on programs ranging from child adoption to flood forecasting.

It will serve as a long overdue aid "map" for anti-poverty fighters so they can match an individual's needs to the help available to him. Until now, a planner's left hand has had no convenient way of finding out what his right hand has been doing.

It will, finally, document the vast scope of our $20 billion-a-year federal war on poverty and its multiple faces.

Valuable as the catalog will be by itself, its sheer volume and diversity will also underline these thought-provoking facts: There are today 50 different federal programs to improve physical health — from aid to the blind to rehabilitation of narcotics addicts. There are today 57 different federal job training programs — for school dropouts, war orphans, federal prisoners, etc. There are today 52 different economic aid programs running the gamut from loans to small businessmen to funds for the improvement of sanitation facilities for Indians.

(At the same time, family planning has only two listings in the book — despite the fact that substantial federal funds are now available for this purpose.)

Major Step
The new Great Society guide is a major step forward in the Office of Economic Opportunity's refreshingly business-like effort to coordinate our sprawling nationwide war on poverty: to search out the roots of poverty and attack them directly, to measure the actual returns from our massive spending.

But the real significance of the new compendium should lie in the spur it provides for the development of new policies aimed at streamlining and simplifying federal aid programs. It should be used as a tool for changes in the programs — not just as an index to existing programs.

How many of these 252 different federal programs actually complement each other and how many overlap? Do we slip,
